Urban Schools and English Language Education in Late Modern China

Miguel Pérez-Milans, 2013-07-24 Shortlisted for the 2014 BAAL Book Prize This book explores the meaning of modernization in contemporary Chinese education It examines the implications of the implementation of reforms in English language education for experimental urban schools in the People's Republic of China Pérez Milans sheds light on how national linguistic and cultural ideologies linked to modernization are being institutionally reproduced legitimated and interpersonally negotiated through everyday practice in the current context of Chinese educational reforms He places special emphasis on those reforms regarding English language education with respect to the economic processes of globalization that are shaping and being shaped by the contemporary Chinese nation state In particular the book analyzes the processes of institutional categorization of the good experimental school the good student and the appropriate knowledge that emerge from the daily discursive organization of those schools with special attention to the related contradictions uncertainties and dilemmas Thus it provides an account of the ongoing cultural processes of change faced by contemporary Chinese educational institutions under conditions of late modernity Winner of The University of Hong Kong's Faculty Early Career Research Output Award for outstanding book publication by the Faculty of Education

The Language of Daily Life in England (1400–1800) Arja Nurmi, Minna Nevala, Minna Palander-Collin, 2009-04-15 The Language of Daily Life in England

1400–1800 is an important state of the art account of historical sociolinguistic and socio-pragmatic research The volume contains nine studies and an introductory essay which discuss linguistic and social variation and change over four centuries Each study tackles a linguistic or social phenomenon and approaches it with a combination of quantitative and qualitative methods always embedded in the socio-historical context The volume presents new information on linguistic variation and change while evaluating and developing the relevant theoretical and methodological tools The writers form one of the leading research teams in the field and as compilers of the Corpus of Early English Correspondence have an informed understanding of the data in all its depth This volume will be of interest to scholars in historical linguistics sociolinguistics and socio-pragmatics but also e.g. social history The approachable style of writing makes it also inviting for advanced students

The Politics of English Lionel Wee, Robbie B.H. Goh, Lisa Lim, 2013-03-28 This volume brings together contributions that explore the increasingly important roles that English plays in Asia including its contribution to economic growth national imaginaries and creative writing These are issues that are political in a broad sense but the diversity of Asian contexts also means that the social political and cultural ramifications of the spread of English into Asia will have to be understood in relation to the challenges facing specific societies The chapters in the book collectively illustrate this diversity by focusing on countries from South Asia Southeast Asia and the Asia Pacific Each country has two contributions devoted to it one paper provides an overview of the country's language policy and its positioning of English and another provides a critical discussion of creative expressions involving the use of English Taken together the papers in the volume detail the most recent developments concerning the politics of English in Asia

Indexing Authenticity Véronique Lacoste, Jakob Leimgruber, Thiemo Breyer, 2014-10-14 The concept of authenticity has received some attention in recent academic discourse yet it has often been left under defined from a sociolinguistic perspective This volume presents the contributions of a wide range of scholars who exchanged their views on the topic at a conference in Freiburg Germany in November 2011 The authors address three leading questions What are the local meanings of authenticity embedded in large cultural and social structures What is the meaning of linguistic authenticity in delocalised and or deterritorialised settings How is authenticity indexed in other contexts of language expression e g in writing or in political discourse These questions are tackled by recognised experts in the fields of sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology and contact linguistics While by no means exhaustive the volume offers a large array of case studies that contribute significantly to our understanding of the meaning of authenticity in language production and perception

The Cambridge Handbook of Discourse Studies Anna De Fina, Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2020-10-15 Discourse studies the study of the ways in which language is used in texts and contexts is a fast moving and increasingly diverse field With contributions from leading and upcoming scholars from across the world and covering cutting edge research this Handbook offers an up to date survey of Discourse Studies It is organized according to perspectives and areas of engagement with each chapter providing an overview of the historical development of its topic the main current issues debates and synergies and future directions The Handbook presents new perspectives on well established themes such as narrative conversation analytic and cognitive approaches to discourse while also embracing a range of up to the minute topics from post humanism to digital surveillance recent methodological orientations such as linguistic landscapes and multimodal discourse analysis and new fields of engagement such as discourses on race religion and money

Multimodal Epistemologies Arianna Maiorani, Christine Christie, 2014-04-24 This volume develops a new multimodal semiotic approach to the study of communication examining how multimodal discourse is construed transmedially and interculturally and how new technologies and cultural stances inform communicative contexts across the world It contributes to current theoretical debates in the disciplines of semiotics linguistics multimodality and pragmatics as well as those aspects of pedagogy and film studies that engage with the notions of text and narrative by addressing questions such as How do we study multimedia communication How do we incorporate the impact of new media technologies into the study of Linguistics and Semiotics How do we construe culture in modern communication How useful are the current multidisciplinary approaches to multimodal communication Through the analysis of specific case studies that are developed within diverse academic disciplines and which draw on a range of theoretical frameworks the goal of this book is to provide a basis for an overarching framework that can be applied by scholars and students with different academic and cultural backgrounds      Social Media Discourse, (Dis)identifications and Diversities Sirpa Leppanen, Elina Westinen, Samu Kytola, 2016-12-08 This volume serves as an in depth investigation of the diversity of means and practices that constitute dis identification and identity construction in social media Given the increasing prevalence of social media in everyday life and the subsequent growing diversity in the types of participants and forms of participation the book makes the case for a rigorous analysis of social media discourses and digital literacy practices to demonstrate the range of semiotic resources used in online communication that form the foundation of dis identification processes Divided into two major sections delineating between the dis identification of the self across various social categories and the dis identification of the self in relation to the other the book employs a discourse ethnographic approach to highlight the value of this type of theoretical framework in providing nuanced descriptions of identity construction in social media and illuminating their larger long term societal and cultural implications This volume is a key resource for researchers and students in sociolinguistics discourse studies computer mediated communication and cultural studies      Handbook of Foreign Language Communication and Learning Karlfried Knapp, Barbara Seidlhofer, H. G. Widdowson, 2009 The Handbooks of Applied Linguistics provide a state of the art description of established and emerging areas of Applied Linguistics Each volume gives an overview of the field explains the most important traditions and their findings identifies the gaps in current research and gives perspectives for future directions      The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics Martha Bigelow, Johanna Ennser-Kananen, 2014-08-13 The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics provides a comprehensive survey of the core and current language related issues in educational contexts Bringing together the expertise and voices of well established as well as emerging scholars from around the world the handbook offers over thirty authoritative and critical explorations of methodologies and contexts of educational linguistics issues of instruction and assessment and teacher education as well as coverage of key topics such as advocacy critical pedagogy and ethics and politics of research in educational linguistics Each chapter relates to key issues raised in the respective topic providing additional historical background critical discussion reviews of pertinent research methods and an assessment of what the future might hold This volume embraces multiple dynamic perspectives and a range of voices in order to move forward in new and productive directions making The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics an essential volume for any student and researcher interested in the issues surrounding language and education particularly in multilingual and multicultural settings
