

Welcome to The Little Mermaid JR.

"In almost every musical ever written, there's a place in the show where the leading lady usually sits down on something and sings about what she wants in life. And the audience falls in love with her and then roots for her to get it for the rest of the night."

—Howard Ashman

Audiences have been falling in love with the little mermaid since Hans Christian Andersen first set her down on paper nearly two centuries ago. In 1989, Disney's The Little Mermaid, a sparkling example of musical storytelling on film, inaugurated a renaissance in Disney animation. Howard Ashman and Alan Menken's ballad "Part of Your World" instantly became the defining "I Want" song for a new generation of musical theatre fans.

Nearly two decades later, I had the privilege to work with Tony Award-winning playwright Doug Wright on Disney's stage production of The Little Mermaid. Inspired by Menken's gorgeous music and Ashman and Glenn Slater's rich lyrics, we helped this show find its sea legs through readings, workshops, out-of-town performances in Denver, and previews in New York before our Broadway opening at the Lunt-Fontanne Theatre on January 10, 2008.

After developing over a dozen Disney JR. and KIDS shows since 2003, I was thrilled to collaborate with David Weinstein to adapt The Little Mermaid's Broadway script and score for young performers. This version of Ariel's journey needs no elaborate sets or props; instead, a Sea Chorus ignites our imagination to create seamless transitions between the watery depths and the world above.

Based on the overwhelming response from our pilot productions, we know your cast will adore performing The Little Mermaid JR.'s iconic characters and beloved songs. Have fun embarking on your own journey in mysterious fathoms below to discover Ariel's voice.
