Education in Malawi and Ghana contributes to the literature on opportunities and complexities of inclusive approaches to Religious Education RE It analyses how RE in Malawi and Ghana engages with religious pluralisation and provides a compelling case for the need to re evaluate current approaches in the conceptualisation curriculum design and delivery of RE in schools in Malawi and Ghana The book explains how a pervasive tradition of selection involving exclusion and inclusion of religion in RE leads to misrepresentation and in turn to misclusion of non normative religions where religion is included but marginalized and misrepresented The book contributes to wider discourse of RE on opportunities as well as complexities of post confessional approaches including the need for RE to avoid perpetuating the continued legitimisation of selected religions and in the process the delegitimization of the religious other as a consequence of misrepresentation and misclusion Inspired by Braten s methodology for comparative studies in RE the book draws on two qualitative studies from Malawi and Ghana to highlight the pervasive problems of religious misclusion in RE This book will be of great interest for academics scholars and post graduate students in the fields of RE African education educational policy international education and comparative education

Trends in Malawian Literature Francis P. B. Moto,2001 Trends in Malawian Literature s departure point is a brief examination of how Malawi s post independence politics affected Malawi literary landscape and an assessment of the early missionaries contribution to early Malawian literature in the local languages That done it discusses messages in the early literature The conclusion drawn is that the early literature in Malawi like most African countries was a potent mouth piece for Christian doctrine and western values Against this background Trends in Malawian Literature assesses the concerns of later writers who although begin to move from the good versus evil dichotomy still emphasize that socially and culturally one is either an sic initially and turns to be good later or vice versa Back cover
