

Taking Your PMO to the Next Stage

	Contents
	Executive Summary	4
	PMOs evolve through three stages as they mature to meet ever-increasing business needs. COOs must ensure that their PMOs master the basics of their current stage before evolving them to the next stage.
Section 1	PMOs must evolve as businesses evolve	6
	As business needs evolve from risk reduction to resource management to business growth, COOs evolve their PMOs through the project, program and portfolio management stages.
Section 2	Reduce business risk with a portfolio management office	10
	A project management office can reduce the risk of project schedule slippage, cost overruns and scope creep by focusing on a standard project management process, task lists and project management.
Section 3	Optimize resource use with a program management office	32
	A program management office can improve resource management across business and IT projects and programs by considering shared resources and its impact on programs, as well as its implementing governance, communications, programs and collaboration tools.
Section 4	Contribute to business growth through a portfolio management office	46
	A portfolio management office can contribute to business growth by reducing the risk of project and program failures and focusing on benefits, resource allocation and management.
