The Islamic Law of War A. Al-Dawoody,2011-03-28 Al Dawoody examines the justifications and regulations for going to war in both international and domestic armed conflicts under Islamic law He studies the various kinds of use of force by both state and non state actors in order to determine the nature of the Islamic law of war Imagining the Fetus Vanessa R Sasson,Jane Marie Law,2009-03-26 In contemporary Western culture the word fetus introduces either a political subject or a literal medicalized entity Neither of these frameworks does justice to the vast array of religious literature and oral traditions from cultures around the world in which the fetus emerges as a powerful symbol or metaphor This volume presents essays that explore the depiction of the fetus in the world s major religious traditions finding some striking commonalities as well as intriguing differences Among the themes that emerge is the tendency to conceive of the fetus as somehow independent of the mother s body as in the case of the Buddha who is described as inhabiting a palace while gestating in the womb On the other hand the fetus can also symbolically represent profound human needs and emotions such as the universal experience of vulnerability The authors note how the advent of the fetal sonogram has transformed how people everywhere imagine the unborn today giving rise to a narrow range of decidedly literal questions about personhood gender and disability
