

Introduction to Daily Paragraph Editing

Why Daily Paragraph Editing?

Daily Paragraph Editing is designed to help students master and retain grade-level skills in language mechanics and expression through focused, daily practice. Instead of practicing skills in a series of random, decontextualized exercises, Daily Paragraph Editing embeds language skills in paragraphs that represent the types of text that students encounter in their daily reading and writing activities across the curriculum. A weekly writing activity allows students to apply the skills they have been practicing throughout the week in their own short compositions.

What's in Daily Paragraph Editing?

Daily Paragraph Editing contains lessons for 36 weeks, with a separate lesson for each day.

Each week's lessons for Monday through Thursday consist of individual reproducible paragraphs that contain errors in the following skills:

- capitalization
- punctuation
- spelling
- language usage, and more

Student's daily lesson pages for Monday through Thursday include:

- a label indicating the type of writing modeled in the weekly lesson
- a paragraph with errors for students to correct; along with the other 3 paragraphs for the week, this forms a complete composition
- daily and weekly lesson identifiers

DINOTOPA

Where can you read about humans and intelligent dinosaurs that have lived together for centuries? You can in James Burley's series of books about a land of intelligent dinosaurs. The first book in the series, Dinotopia: A Land Apart from Time, introduced readers to biologist and explorer Arthur Denaro and his son Will who are shipwrecked on a hidden island. There they encounter intelligent dinosaurs living in harmony with marooned travelers.
