All is True Lilian R. Furst, 1995 All is true realist writers would say of their work to which critics now respond All is art and artifice Offering a new approach to reading nineteenth century realist fiction Lilian R Furst seeks to reconcile these contradictory claims In doing so she clarifies the deceptions appropriations intentions and ultimately the power of literary realism In close textual analyses of works ranging across European and American literature including paradigmatic texts by Balzac Flaubert George Eliot Zola Henry James and Thomas Mann Furst shows how the handling of time the presentation of place and certain narrational strategies have served the realists claim She demonstrates how readers today like those a hundred years ago are convinced of the authenticity of the created illusion by such means as framing voice perspective and the slippage from metonymy to metaphor Further Furst reveals the pains the realists took to conceal these devices and thus to protect their claim to be employing a simple form Taking into account both the claims and the covert strategies of these writers All Is True puts forward an alternative to the conventional polarized reading of the realist text which emerges here as neither strictly an imitation of an extraneous model nor simply a web of words but a brilliantly complex imbrication of the two A major statement on one of the most enduring forms in cultural history this book promises to alter not only our view of realist fiction but our understanding of how we read it Bibliothèque de l'École des chartes

Romances sans Paroles de Paul Verlaine Michel Malherbe,2023-10-16 Convaincu que l'étude du plaisir de l'écriture reste particulière tandis que celle du lecteur permet une compréhension plus générale du phénomène Michel Malherbe conscient que les textes analysés dans cet ouvrage sont le produit de la volonté libre d'un auteur Paul Verlaine a procédé à l'analyse euphonique des Romances sans paroles afin de mieux comprendre le plaisir de les lire Ce plaisir est avant tout euphonique en cela cette approche de la poésie est particulière puisqu'elle aborde le texte sous son aspect sonore dont la structuration rejaillit sur une meilleure compréhension du sens Pour procéder cette analyse euphonique il fallait utiliser un outil valide et fiable Les recherches dans ce domaine de la pratique des sonorités du texte poétique ne sont guère abondantes en revanche les méthodes proposées reposent sur des principes divergents Le premier chapitre présente trois méthodes manant respectivement de Delas et Filliolet de Chausserie Laprade et de Gauthier Leur critique aboutit au choix de la troisième qui pour les raisons de l'analyse portant sur tout un recueil a été affinée c'est la raison pour laquelle le chapitre deux explique le système d'analyse sa méthodologie et les conditions de perceptibilité des figures qui en découlent et ce au travers d' exemples extraits exclusivement du corpus verlainien cité Le troisième chapitre propose l'analyse euphonique de vers isolés du recueil selon le nombre croissant de syllabes par vers il s'ensuit une analyse statistique des mots rythmés et des mots clairs qui tend à prouver la validité de l'idée selon laquelle la structure euphonique du texte poétique peut servir de fondement à l'interprétation sémantique de ce texte Dans le chapitre quatre après une rapide comparaison entre les structures euphoniques portant sur un poème entier avec les structures musicales sont réalisées diverses analyses de poèmes considérés dans leur totalité sonore Enfin le cinquième chapitre analyse l'auto implication de Verlaine dans son recueil par une triple approche poétique statistique et psychanalytique qui aboutit à l'esquisse de l'hypothèse d'une signature subliminale de son œuvre par le poète
