Jsc Out Question:

It's a Question of Space Clayton C. Anderson, 2018-07-01 Having spent over 150 days on his first tour of the International Space Station it is safe to say that Clayton C Anderson knows a thing or two about space travel Now retired and affectionately known as Astro Clay by his many admirers on social media and the Internet Anderson has fielded thousands of questions over the years about spaceflight living in space and what it is like to be an astronaut Written with honesty and razor sharp wit It is a Question of Space gathers Anderson's often humorous answers to these questions and more in a book that will beguile young adults and space buffs alike Covering topics as intriguing as walking in space what astronauts are supposed to do when they see UFOs and what role astronauts play in espionage Anderson's book is written in an accessible question and answer format that covers nearly all aspects of life in space imaginable From living in zero gravity to going to the bathroom up there It is a Question of Space leaves no stone unturned in this witty firsthand account of life as an astronaut

Women Judges Ulrike Schultz, Masengu Tabeth, Avrom Sherr, 2024-06-14 Do women have equal chances in the judiciary Although women have made their way into law faculties in many countries of the world they still face drawbacks in judicial careers This book delves into the different aspects of women at work in the judicial environment focusing on judicial appointments promotions the glass ceiling and representation in high positions of the judiciary across international settings such as Nigeria South Africa Philippines Turkey Spain and Northern Ireland The contributions go beyond the classical career issues by digging into several questions related to women at work in the judicial environment such as Are women accepted by their colleagues and by clients at court male and female Do they get the recognition they deserve or is there indecent behaviour and discrimination against them What about work life balance And how do women judges perceive their role The book offers valuable insights by questioning and criticising the status quo paving the way to a gender equal future in the judiciary A significant new contribution to international scholarship in the field this book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of the Legal Profession

The Zuma Years Richard Calland, 2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma's coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing Guptagate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition's prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider's approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today
