

Voice: A Weapon of Change

Voice is one of the most powerful weapons that we can have. By speaking, we can change many things. We can influence other people's lives, we can change their perceptions, and through voicing out our thoughts, we may change the world into a better place. That's why, we need to speak effectively to have a huge impact on our listeners.

However, being an effective and powerful speaker is not easy. You need to take the attention of the people and make them listen to you. But how? Just like what Julian Treasure mentioned in his video, we should avoid the deadly sins of speaking and for me, it's true. It is really hard and annoying to listen to someone who is boastful, judgmental, negative, complaining all the time, and lying. It is just like watching a nonsense movie. It is better when we talk about truth and reality. It is more pleasing and interesting to hear.

Aside from that, there are four things that we need to acquire to make our speech powerful. These things are honesty, authenticity, integrity, and lastly love. We need to be true and honest when we speak. We need to be genuine and enthusiastic to show them that we really like what we are doing and to get their attention. Next, we need to stand by our words, do what we say and be the person whom people can trust and lastly, wishing people well.

Voice plays a vital role in speaking. According to the video, we have this powerful toolbox that could help us to speak better yet, only few can use it well. This toolbox can help us to speak powerfully so we must use it correctly. We need to control the register, timbre, prosody, pace, pitch and volume of our voice. We cannot deny that there are times that the voice of the speaker has a huge impact on us, the more powerful it is, the more we want to listen. So by practicing and warming up we can improve our voice.

We need to speak to be heard by everyone. We need to speak to say what we want and we need to speak to change the world. We should acquire those four characteristics to be a good speaker and practice our voice. We should be the master of it.

Change and Challenge in the World Economy Bela Balassa, 1985-10-24 The Transformative Power of Literature and Narrative: Promoting Positive Change Corinna Assmann, Jan Rupp, Christine Schwanecke, 2023-01-16 Narrative plays a central role for individual and collective lives this insight has arguably only grown at a time of multiple social and cultural challenges in the 21st century The present volume aims to actualize and further substantiate the case for literature and narrative taking inspiration from Vera Nünning's eminent scholarship over the past decades Engaging with her formative interdisciplinary work the volume seeks to explore potentials of change through the transformative power of literature and narrative to be harnessed by individuals and groups as agents of positive change in today's world. The book is located at the intersection of cognitive and cultural narratology and is concerned with the way literature affects individuals how it works at an intersubjective level enabling communication and community and how it furthers social and cultural change.

Organizational Justice and Organizational Change Dominique David, 2020-10-19 Although various factors contribute to failed change one of the key reasons for change failure is the inability of leaders to gain the trust of employees to understand the interaction between their subordinates and to convince them to support change and to commit the energy and effort necessary to implement it. The aims of this book are to establish theories in order to describe and explain how human behaviors and contexts interact dynamically in these changes and manage change and justice by reducing inequalities giving emphasis to distributive justice. In addition the aim of this book is also for readers to better understand employees' perceptions of organizational justice by senior management which is particularly important during the organizational change because change cannot succeed without the acceptance and support from employees. Organizational Justice and Organizational Change Managing by Love provides readers a theoretical understanding and recommendations for acting properly in an organization forming a comprehensive tool and better enable practitioners to achieve management of change and justice in organizations. It will be of interest to researchers academics practitioners and students in the fields of change management organizational studies leadership and strategic management.

A Problem-based Approach for Management Education Philip Hallinger, Edwin M. Bridges, 2007-05-22 A Problem based Approach for Management Education describes the use of problem based learning (PBL) in management education. PBL is an active learning approach first pioneered in medical education but whose use has grown steadily in a variety of professional fields over the past two decades. The authors draw upon their experience in using PBL in a broad array of management education programs at the Bachelor Master Doctoral and Executive levels in North America and in Asia. This book is designed to provide both novice and experienced users of PBL with resources for designing and implementing problem based management education. The book provides the novice with useful theoretical and practical background on how design a PBL curriculum use PBL in a classroom and develop PBL materials. At the same time the book will challenge experienced users of PBL and case teaching to extend their applications through the use of learning technologies and more systematic approaches to assessment and curriculum design.
