Salim Rashid,Irwan Shah Zainal Abidin,2019-10-01 The Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement TPPA is an economic partnership pact negotiated by 12 countries in three continents namely Australia Brunei Canada Chile Japan Malaysia Mexico New Zealand Peru Singapore United States and Vietnam The TPPA has evolved into the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans Pacific Partnership CPTPP when the United States pulled out from the multilateral free trade deal in 2018 Malaysia began negotiations on the TPPA in August 2010 and participated as a full negotiating member from October 2010 onwards The TPPA itself was based on the United States Korea Free Trade Agreement KORUS which was completed in 2011 This agreement provided a benchmark to decide and evaluate on several issues in the CPTPP The overall intent of the CPTPP is a simple one it is to extend non discriminatory practices to all CPTPP members This does not mean that regulations and restrictions will not exist that such regulations will apply equally to Malaysian and non Malaysian CPTPP members

Contentious issues in the CPTPP will be analysed and discussed in this book. Is the Malaysian economy ready for the CPTPP rules especially in the financial and capital markets? To what extent that Bank Negara's ability to retain their power to intervene when either the balance of payments or the currency is felt to be under threat with CPTPP? What are the impacts of CPTPP to the real economic side of the Malaysian economy? Will national rights be being relinquished under CPTPP? How about the concern over investor state dispute settlement (ISDS)? This book will address these issues in an objective and rational manner.

Regionalisation and Global Governance Andrew F. Cooper, Christopher W. Hughes, Philippe De Lombaerde, 2007-12-21. The relationship between global governance and regionalization is fraught with ambiguity. Understanding regionalization in this context requires an understanding of its relationship and reactive condition with both the constellations of global governance and globalization. This book presents an overview and explores the distinctive but intersecting trajectories of regionalization and global governance. It surveys the theoretical debates, the economic dimensions, multinationals, trade and investment and labour, the security considerations, armed conflict, conflict prevention and peacekeeping and non traditional security in Asia, the governing structures, managing contemporary multilevel architecture and cultural policy leadership and the L 20. The expert and multi disciplinary editors and contributors survey the context as well as the general character of these projects together with their links as both parallel mediating mechanisms and distinctive choices for interjecting governance into globalization. Examining these projects in tandem amplifies their importance and enables the contributors to tease out coincidental as well as alternative possibilities in policy direction. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations, area studies, international economics, international political economy, political science, public administration and development studies.
