Cultural Management Styles, Leadership and Decision-Making

Cultural management varies depending on the underplayed principles. Many traditions practiced in the Middle East usually do not give equivalent opportunities for both males and females. Females do not have a voice in society, and men prevail over them. This management system does not give women a chance to express their opinions. Hence, they are unable to exploit their potentials. Women in such countries cannot take up leadership roles because their decisions are not considered valid or valuable. They can, therefore, only involve themselves in large businesses but resort to small-scale businesses...
