Building Sustainable Worlds Theresa Delgadillo,Ramon H. Rivera-Servera,Geraldo L. Cadava,Claire F. Fox,2022-07-12 Latina o x places exist as both tangible physical phenomena and gatherings created and maintained by creative cultural practices In this collection an interdisciplinary group of contributors critically examines the many ways that varied Latina o x communities cohere through cultural expression Authors consider how our embodied experiences of place together with our histories and knowledge inform our imagination and reimagination of our surroundings in acts of placemaking This placemaking often considers environmental sustainability as it helps to sustain communities in the face of xenophobia and racism through cultural expression ranging from festivals to zines to sanctuary movements It emerges not only in specific locations but as movement within and between sites not only as part of a built environment but also as an aesthetic practice and not only because of efforts by cultural political and institutional leaders but through mass media and countless human interactions A rare and crucial perspective on Latina o x people in the Midwest Building Sustainable Worlds reveals how expressive culture contributes to and sustains a sense of place in an uncertain era

Biting the Hands that Feed Us Baylen Linnekin, 2016-09-15 Today in the United States laws exist at all levels of government that exacerbate problems such as food waste hunger inhumane livestock conditions and disappearing fish stocks Baylen Linnekin argues that government rules often handcuff America s most sustainable farmers producers sellers and consumers while rewarding those whose practices are anything but sustainable Biting the Hands that Feed Us introduces readers to the perverse consequences of many food rules from crippling organic farms to subsidizing monocrops Linnekin also explores what makes for a good law often he explains these emphasize good outcomes over rigid processes But he urges readers to reconsider efforts to regulate our way to a greener food system calling instead for empowerment of those working to feed us and themselves sustainably
