Theory Arthur K. Ellis,2014-01-09 This book crosses the divide between theoreticians and practitioners by demonstrating how curriculum theories and models are applied in classrooms today It ties together broad educational theories such as progressivism essentialism perennialism etc curriculum models characterized as learner centered society centered or knowledge centered and exemplars of curriculum theories and models such as Reggio Emilia Core Knowledge the International Baccalaureate etc Assessment in Geographical Education: An International Perspective Theresa

Bourke,Reece Mills,Rod Lane,2022-02-27 In recent years there has been increased attention paid to the importance of assessment in Geographical Education the chosen subject for this book Assessment is an important tool for collecting information about student learning and for providing timely data to inform key stakeholders including students teachers parents and policymakers To be effective assessment needs to be valid reliable and fair Validity is about ensuring that we assess what we claim we are assessing Reliability is about measuring performance and understanding in a consistent way

Without validity and reliability assessment is unlikely to provide equitable opportunities for students to demonstrate what they know and can do As geography educators it is therefore important that we identify the core concepts and skills in geography that we want students to master We need a clear understanding of what the progression of learning looks like for each concept and skill so we can develop fit for purpose assessments that track and improve student learning While there is a substantial literature on evidence based assessment in secondary school contexts research exploring best practice assessment in geography is rare This is a concern given the distinctive nature of geography and the important role of assessment in the learning process This scholarly collection seeks to address this issue by connecting research in educational assessment with the domain of geography The chapters are written by leading researchers in Geographical Education from across the globe These chapters provide examples of innovation through the collective voices of geography teacher educator scholars from across Australia USA South Korea Germany Switzerland and Singapore What unifies the work in this book is that each chapter focuses on a key feature of the discipline of geography providing scholarly examples of evidence based practices for assessing student s knowledge and skills

The Best of 2014 Gideon Rose,2014-12-08 At Foreign Affairs we ve published a ton of great content in 2014 and we ve picked out ten of our favorite articles from the print edition and ten from the web to show you just what we ve been up to over the last year Highlights include Capital Punishment in which Tyler Cowen explains why French economist Thomas Piketty s book on economic inequality is brilliant but fundamentally flawed Why the Ukraine Crisis Is the West s Fault John Mearsheimer s blockbuster article on Washington and its European allies responsibility for the Ukraine crisis will make you rethink your opinion of recent Russian behavior In Meet Pakistan s Lady Cadets Aeyliya Husain offers an eye opening account of a small group of women making its way through the Pakistan Military Academy Finally Hamas is only the latest in a long line of groups to use tunnels to wage war In Notes from the Underground Arthur Herman writes that there s no way to know how long drones and the like will last But as long as there is warfare tunnels will almost certainly be part of the fight We hope you enjoy the collection and come back for more in 2015

Exemplars of Assessment in Higher Education, Volume Two Jane Marie Souza,Tara A. Rose,2023-11-09 In this second volume of the successful Exemplars of Assessment in Higher Education editors Souza and Rose share examples of assessment practice from over fifteen distinct and diverse Higher Education Institutions including international contributions Building upon the work of the first volume the case studies in this book reflect the changes in assessment and higher education in the post Covid education environment The institutions that appear in this book were chosen for having an effective assessment approach in one or more of the following areas career readiness distance education diversity equity and inclusion or general education Each part of the book discusses one of these four areas with chapters that feature real life examples from the educators who teach at the college or university Featuring a Foreword by AAC U President Lynn Pasquerella the work highlighted in this book is also aligned with AAC U s Valid Assessment of Learning in Undergraduate
