Justice at Work Marc Doussard, Greg Schrock, 2022-05-17 A pathbreaking look at how progressive policy change for economic justice has swept U S cities In the 2010s cities and counties across the United States witnessed long overdue change as they engaged more than ever before with questions of social economic and racial justice After decades of urban economic restructuring that intensified class divides and institutional and systemic racism dozens of local governments countered the conventional wisdom that cities couldn't address inequality enacting progressive labor market policies from 15 minimum wages to paid sick leave Justice at Work examines the mutually reinforcing roles of economic and racial justice organizing and policy entrepreneurship in building power and support for policy changes Bridging urban social movement and urban politics studies it demonstrates how economic and racial justice coalitions are collectively the critical institution underpinning progressive change It also shows that urban policy change is driven by urban policy entrepreneurs who use public space and the intangible resources of the city to open agenda windows for progressive policy proposals incubated through national networks Through case studies of organizing and policy change efforts in cities including Chicago Seattle and New Orleans around minimum wages targeted hiring paid time off fair scheduling and anti austerity Marc Doussard and Greg Schrock show that the contemporary wave of successful progressive organizing efforts is likely to endure Yet they caution that success is dependent on skillful organizing that builds and sustains power at the grassroots and skillful policy work inside City Hall By promoting justice at and increasingly beyond work these movements hold the potential to unlock a new model for inclusive economic development in cities      Islam and the Liberal State Stephen H. Jones, 2020-11-26 National identity and liberal democracy are recurrent themes in debates about Muslim minorities in the West Britain is no exception with politicians responding to claims about Muslims lack of integration by mandating the promotion of fundamental British values including democracy and individual liberty This book engages with both these themes addressing the lack of understanding about the character of British Islam and its relationship to the liberal state It charts a gradual but decisive shift in British institutions concerned with Islamic education Islamic law and Muslim representation since Muslims settled in the UK in large numbers in the 1950s Based on empirical research including interviews undertaken over a ten year period with Muslims and analysis of public events organized by Islamic institutions Stephen Jones challenges claims about the isolation of British Islamic organizations and shows that they have decisively shaped themselves around British public and institutional norms He argues that this amounts to the building of a distinctive British Islam Using this narrative the book makes the case for a variety of liberalism that is open to the expression of religious arguments in public and to associations between religious groups and the state It also offers a powerful challenge to claims about the insularity of British Islamic institutions by showing how the national orientation of Islam called for by British policymakers is in fact already happening      Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar, 2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECS include Africa s major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa s most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism      Putin's Labor Dilemma Stephen Crowley, 2021-07-15 In Putin s Labor Dilemma Stephen Crowley investigates how the fear of labor protest has inhibited substantial economic transformation in Russia Putin boasts he has the backing of workers in the country s industrial heartland but as economic growth slows in Russia reviving the economy will require restructuring the country s industrial landscape At the same time doing so threatens to generate protest and instability from a key regime constituency However continuing to prop up Russia s Soviet era workplaces writes Crowley could lead to declining wages and economic stagnation threatening protest and instability Crowley explores the dynamics of a Russian labor market that generally avoids mass unemployment the potentially explosive role of Russia s monotowns conflicts generated by massive downsizing in Russia s Detroit Tol yatti and the rapid politicization of the truck drivers movement

Labor protests currently show little sign of threatening Putin's hold on power but the manner in which they are being conducted point to substantial chronic problems that will be difficult to resolve Putin's Labor Dilemma demonstrates that the Russian economy must either find new sources of economic growth or face stagnation Either scenario market reforms or economic stagnation raises the possibility even probability of destabilizing social unrest

Peer-to-peer Accommodation and Community Resilience Anna Farmaki, Dimitri Ioannides, Stella Kladou, 2022-03-16 The growth of peer to peer P2P accommodation has been remarkable However the rapid expansion of the phenomenon has yielded several concerns over its potentially negative economic social and environmental impacts These impacts are highlighted in policy agendas as an emerging problem encountered by many local communities in destinations experiencing a boom in P2P accommodation Specifically concerns have been raised over the impact of the growth of P2P accommodation on local housing markets residents well being and the environment as a result of the touristification of residential areas In fact many observers accuse P2P accommodation of fuelling the overtourism problem that several destinations face This edited book addresses the need to examine the P2P accommodation phenomenon from a community resilience lens In particular through a collection of chapters presenting a range of empirical and conceptual perspectives from urban and rural communities the book considers the implications of P2P accommodation growth on the resilience of local communities and the sustainable development of places

Riddle,2018-01-05 Counterinsurgency is a doctrine premised on winning the population of a nation state over to the government's side Counterinsurgency is also associated with a continuing presence of military forces for long periods and significant aid expenditures As such it is a curious strategy to employ in the midst of wars seen as failing and when the population has turned against the conflict This book examines counterinsurgency's emergence in Vietnam Iraq and Afghanistan in order to understand how it is employed in the midst of these perceived war fighting failures In doing so it thinks of strategy as narrative that describes how actions will result in better future effects In so doing this book traces the ways in which the strategy making process overcomes fragmentation to produce consensus It concludes that through the examination of how actors analogies and narratives are produced and deployed into strategy debates the reasons for counterinsurgency's emergence in crisis periods can be determined This approach enables a better understanding of the dynamics of policy making and how geostrategic change occurs
