Learning in the Museum George E. Hein, 2002-09-11 Learning in the Museum examines major issues and shows how research in visitor studies and the philosophy of education can be applied to facilitate a meaningful educational experience in museums Hein combines a brief history of education in public museums with a rigorous examination of how the educational theories of Dewey Piaget Vygotsky and subsequent theorists relate to learning in the museum Surveying a wide range of research methods employed in visitor studies is illustrated with examples taken from museums around the world Hein explores how visitors can best learn from exhibitions which are physically socially and intellectually accessible to every single visitor He shows how museums can adapt to create this kind of environment to provide what he calls the constructivist museum Providing essential theoretical analysis for students this volume also serves as a practical guide for all museum professionals on how to adapt their museums to maximize the educational experience of every visitor Progressive

Museum Practice George E Hein, 2016-06-16 Preeminent museum education theorist George E Hein explores the work philosophy and impact of educational reformer John Dewey and his importance for museums Hein traces current practice in museum education to Dewey's early 20th century ideas about education democracy and progress toward improving society and in so doing provides a rare history of museum education as a profession Giving special attention to the progressive individuals and institutions who followed Dewey in developing the foundations for the experiential learning that is considered best practice today Hein demonstrates a parallel between contemporary theories about education and socio political progress and specifically the significance of museums for sustaining and advancing a democratic society Time and Presence in

Art Armin Bergmeier, Andrew Griebeler, 2022-03-07 This volume explores the relationship between temporality and presence in medieval artworks from the third to the sixteenth centuries It is the first extensive treatment of the interconnections between medieval artworks varied presences and their ever shifting places in time The volume begins with reflections on the study of temporality and presence in medieval and early modern art history A second section presents case studies delving into the different ways medieval artworks once created and transformed their original viewers experience of the present These range from late antique Constantinople early Islamic Jerusalem and medieval Italy to early modern Venice and the Low Countries A final section explores how medieval artworks remain powerful and relevant today This section includes case studies on reconstructing presence in medieval art through embodied experience of pilgrimage art historical research and museum education In doing so the volume provides a first dialog between museum educators and art historians on the presence of medieval artifacts It includes contributions by Hans Belting Keith Moxey Rika Burnham and others
