The Methodologies of Art Laurie Schneider Adams, 2018-03-09 Since the nineteenth century when art history became an established academic discipline works of art have been read in a variety of ways These different ways of describing and interpreting art are the methodologies of artistic analysis the divining rods of meaning Regardless of a work's perceived difficulty an art object is in theory complex Every work of art is an expression of its culture time and place and its maker the artist and is dependent on its media what it's made of The methodologies discussed here formal analysis iconology and iconography Marxism feminism biography and autobiography psychoanalysis structuralism race and gender reflect the multiplicity of meanings in an artistic image The second edition includes nineteen new images new sections on race gender orientalism and colonialism and a new epilogue that analyzes a single painting to illustrate the different methodological viewpoints METHODOLOGIES OF ART LAURIE SCHNEIDER ADAMS, 2019-06-10 The Work of Art in a Digital Age: Art, Technology and Globalisation Melissa Langdon, 2014-08-20 This book explores digital artists' articulations of globalization Digital artworks from around the world are examined in terms of how they both express and simulate globalization's impacts through immersive participatory and interactive technologies The author highlights some of the problems with macro and categorical approaches to the study of globalization and presents new ways of seeing the phenomenon as a series of processes and flows that are individually experienced and expressed Instead of providing a macro analysis of large scale political and economic processes the book offers imaginative new ways of knowing and understanding globalization as a series of micro affects Digital art is explored in terms of how it re-centers articulations of globalization around individual experiences and offers new ways of accessing a complex topic often expressed in general and intangible terms The Work of Art in a Digital Age: Art, Technology and Globalization is analytic and accessible with material that is of interest to a range of researchers from different disciplines Students studying digital art film globalization cultural studies or digital media trends will also find the content fascinating Looking at Art Laurie Adams, 2003 This book of eight brief chapters on different aspects of the visual arts is designed to explore the nature of imagery and its relevance to many facets of our lives Drawing on a wealth of examples from Western and non-Western art through the ages it examines a wide range of themes from the relationship between form and meaning to the methodologies of art historical analysis to the controversies that have surrounded certain works of art both past and present Art And Psychoanalysis Laurie Schneider Adams, 1994-08-15 A pioneering overview of art and psychoanalysis that shows how each field can enrich and enlarge the other Art Practice as Research Graeme Sullivan, 2010 Art Practice as Research Second Edition continues to present a compelling argument that the creative and cultural inquiry undertaken by artists is a form of research The text explores themes practices and contexts of artistic inquiry and positions them within the discourse of research Sullivan argues that legitimate research goals can be achieved by choosing different methods than those offered by the social sciences The common denominator in both approaches is the attention given to rigor and systematic inquiry Artists emphasize the role of the imaginative intellect in creating criticizing and constructing knowledge that is not only new but also has the capacity to transform human understanding

Animal Modernities Daniel Harkett ,Katie Hornstein,2025-08-13 Animal Modernities challenges the traditional human centered focus of art history and explores how modern art visual culture and modernity itself emerge from relationships between humans and animals The essays in this volume reveal histories of exploitation and domination as well as confusion and ambivalence and occasional moments when affinities between humans and animals have been embraced and animal agency asserted and acknowledged The authors collectively point to the importance of thinking about animal human relations for addressing today s ecological challenges

Art and Animals Giovanni Aloï,2011-11-30 Art is continually haunted by the animal wrote Deleuze and Guattari Over the past two decades animals have quite literally invaded the gallery space from Joseph Beuys co habiting with a coyote Janis Kounelli s instillation of live horses Damien Hirst s shark in formaldehyde to Mark Dion s natural history displays and Marco Evaristti s goldfish in a blender In this latest addition to the highly acclaimed Art and series Giovanni Aloï surveys the insistent presence of animals in the world of contemporary art exploring the leading concepts which inform this emerging practice From exhibitions featuring live animals to taxidermy and interspecies communication Giovanni Aloï explores how animals feature in modern art with a range of thought provoking and innovative visual representations Art and Animals challenges ideas of identity otherness and civilisation by explaining the role animals have occupied in our cultural development and illustrating their presence in the visual arts today

I'm Not an Artist Giovanni Aloï,2025-01-23 Romanticized notions of how one becomes an artist have long been questioned so why do we still fetishize them in popular culture turning a blind eye to the politics of exclusionism that characterize the art world and conforming our creative potential to well trodden stereotypes I m Not an Artist is a critical appraisal of the role of the artist through time and an account of how successful artists have conquered their spot in the history of art from the rise of the Renaissance artist star to the multiplicity of artistic identities we see in the creative landscape today Entertaining informative and packed with important but lesser known stories about how artists became famous it examines the cultural importance of the professional label artist and invites readers to give up the artist myth in order to rediscover creativity beyond the stronghold of institutions markets trends and cultural clich s It s a book about art artists art history and the art market as well as the role creativity plays in our lives and how outdated power structures and professional labels are a hindrance to unlocking creative potential Openly engaging with the contradictions and paradoxes that currently define the relationship between artists the education system and the art market the book proposes an eco cultural model that can allow artists to reconfigure their identities and in the process tilt the artworld s axis By turns a critical framework for examining what constitutes the term artist an alternative art historical account and a no holds barred guide to how the art world really works this boundary breaking book challenges existing practices methodologies and metrics of success calling for a fairer art world that is non elitist and multicultural It allows readers to critically position themselves in today s art world in a clear ethically grounded and responsible way Interdisciplinary Research Allen F. Repko,Rick Szostak,2016-03-31 The Third Edition of Interdisciplinary Research Process and Theory offers a comprehensive and systematic presentation of the interdisciplinary research process and the theory that informs it Authors Allen F Repko and Rick Szostak illustrate each step of the decision making process by drawing on student and professional work from the natural sciences social sciences humanities and applied fields Designed for active learning and problem based approaches as well as for more traditional approaches the book now includes more examples from real student research projects and adds more tables and figures to enliven the discussion England and its Aesthetes David Carrier,2014-01-02 First Published in 1999 John Ruskin 1819 1900 Walter Pater 1839 1894 and Adrian Stokes 1902 1972 represent three generations of English aesthetes whose writings have transformed art history and the formations of museums as we know them They are three great writers in a distinctively English tradition Concerned with the nature of aesthetic experience and with the interpretation of visual art they offer approaches that are dramatically different in challenging ways from those of professional art historians They published autobiographies explaining the relationship of their conceptions of aesthetic experience to their critical thinking about social questions With England and Its Aesthetes David Carrier has assembled the autobiographical sketches of these influential aesthetes His reading reveals them to be less concerned with art appreciation or an aesthetic approach to everyday life than with issues of identity politics and desire Too Beautiful to Picture Elizabeth Mansfield, Few tales of artistic triumph can rival the story of Zeuxis As first reported by Cicero and Pliny the painter Zeuxis set out to portray Helen of Troy but when he realized that a single model could not match Helen s beauty he combined the best features of five different models A primer on mimesis in art making the Zeuxis myth also illustrates ambivalence about the ability to rely on nature as a model for ideal form In Too Beautiful to Picture Elizabeth C Mansfield engages the visual arts literature and performance to examine the desire to make the ideal visible She finds in the Zeuxis myth evidence of a cultural primal scene that manifests itself in gendered terms Mansfield considers the many depictions of the legend during the Renaissance and questions its absence during the eighteenth century Offering interpretations of Angelica Kauffman s paintings Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and Picasso s Les Femmes d'Alger (O Version O) Mansfield also considers Orlan s carnal art as a profound retelling of the myth Throughout Mansfield asserts that the Zeuxis legend encodes an unconscious record of the West s reliance on mimetic representation as a vehicle for metaphysical solace Elizabeth C Mansfield is associate professor of art history at the University of the South What is Architectural History? Andrew Leach,2013-04-25 What is Architectural History considers the questions and problems posed by architectural historians since the rise of the discipline in the late nineteenth century How do historians of architecture organise past time and relate it to the present How does historical evidence translate into historical narrative Should architectural history be useful for practicing architects If so how Leach treats the disciplinarity of architectural history as an open question moving between three key approaches to historical knowledge of architecture within art history as an historical specialisation and most prominently within architecture He suggests that the confusions around this question have been productive ensuring a rich variety of approaches to the project of exploring architecture historically Read alongside introductory surveys of western and global architectural history this book will open up questions of perspective frame and intent for students of architecture art history and history Graduate students and established architectural historians will find much in this book to fuel discussions over the current state of the field in which they work RACAR, Revue D'art Canadienne ,1998 Choreographies of the Living Carrie Rohman,2018-04-09

Choreographies of the Living explores the implications of shifting from viewing art as an exclusively human undertaking to recognizing it as an activity that all living creatures enact Carrie Rohman reveals the aesthetic impulse itself to be profoundly trans species and in doing so she revises our received wisdom about the value and functions of artistic capacities Countering the long history of aesthetic theory in the West beginning with Plato and Aristotle and moving up through the recent claims of neuroaesthetics Rohman challenges the likening of aesthetic experience to an exclusively human form of judgment Turning toward the animal in new frameworks for understanding aesthetic impulses Rohman emphasizes a deep coincidence of humans and animals elaborations of fundamental life forces Examining a range of literary visual dance and performance works and processes by modernist and contemporary figures such as Isadora Duncan D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and Merce Cunningham Rohman reconceives the aesthetic itself not as a distinction separating humans from other animals but rather as a framework connecting embodied beings Her view challenges our species to acknowledge the shared status of art making one of our most hallowed and formerly exceptional activities Art History: The Basics Diana Newall,Grant Pooke,2008-03-10 Art History The Basics is a concise and accessible introduction for the general reader and the undergraduate approaching the history of art for the first time at college or university It will give you answers to questions like What is art and art history What are the main methodologies used to understand art How have ideas about form sex and gender shaped representation What connects art with psychoanalysis semiotics and Marxism How are globalization and postmodernism changing art and art history Each chapter introduces key ideas issues and debates in art history including information on relevant websites and image archives Fully illustrated with an international range of artistic examples Art History The Basics also includes helpful subject summaries further ideas for reading in each chapter and a useful glossary for easy reference Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh,2017-07-05 Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth Yet within the literature on contemporary art little has been said about this provocative relationship Composed of fourteen original essays Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks from iconography to deconstruction and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects Francis Al s Ghada Amer Wim Delvoye Luciano Fabro Joanna Frueh Felix Gonzales Torres Duane Hanson Yayoi Kusama Roy Lichtenstein Kara Walker and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew subsequently entitled The Falling Man Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths while others take a broader approach calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art

The Artistic Sphere Roger D. Henderson, Marleen Hengelaar-Rookmaaker, 2024-01-02 The Neo Calvinist tradition is well equipped to offer wisdom on the arts to the whole body of Christ Edited by art scholar Roger Henderson and Marleen Hengelaar Rookmaaker daughter of Hans Rookmaaker this volume brings together history philosophy and theology to consider the relationship between the arts and the Neo Calvinist tradition Imagining' Biblical Worlds David M. Gunn, Paula McNutt, 2002-12-01 The essays in this volume address the interface between biblical studies archaeology sociology and cultural anthropology celebrating the pioneering work of James Flanagan In particular this collection explores various ways in which the real ancient world is constructed by the modern critical reader with the aid of various theoretical and practical tools The contributors to this volume have all been involved with Flanagan and his projects during his academic career and the essays carry forward the important interdisciplinary agendas he has encouraged Part One deals with his recent interest in spatiality and Part Two with social and historical constructs This book in James Flanagan s honour represents a significant statement of research in an area of biblical and historical research that is increasingly important yet surprisingly under represented Italian Renaissance Art Laurie Schneider Adams, 2018-05-04 The chronology of the Italian Renaissance its character and context have long been a topic of discussion among scholars Some date its beginnings to the fourteenth century work of Giotto others to the generation of Masaccio Brunelleschi and Donatello that flourished from around 1400 The close of the Renaissance has also proved elusive Mannerism for example is variously considered to be an independent but subsidiary late aspect of Renaissance style or a distinct style in its own right
