Going Diverse: Innovative Answers to Future Challenges Carmen Leicht-Scholten,Elke Breuer,Nathalie Tulodetzki,Andrea Wolfram,2011-02-25 Organisations and institutions of higher education are more and more challenged by current economic social and political conditions to react competitively and innovatively on new requirements such as demographic change globalisation or skilled labour shortage In addition universities and companies alike have to compete for the most qualified staff In order to produce more innovative solutions and to perform better it is essential to integrate gender and diversity perspectives as important elements of organisational and human resources development This anthology presents different theoretical and practical approaches best practice examples and important aspects of gender and diversity management in organisations Dude, Can You Count? Stories, Challenges and Adventures in Mathematics Christian Constanda,2009-12-01 Imagine algebra class meets The Hitchhiker s Guide to the Galaxy Meet JJ an unusual character with a unique vantage position from which he can measure and monitor humanity s progress Armed with a device that compels all around it to tell the truth JJ offers a satirical evaluation of our attitudes to numeracy and logic touching upon several aspects of life on Earth along the way from the criminal justice system and people's use of language to highway driving and modern art A collection of mathematically flavored stories and jokes interlaced with puzzles paradoxes and problems fuse together in an entertaining free flowing narrative that will engage and amuse anyone with an interest in the issues confronting society today JJ demonstrates how a lack of elementary mathematical knowledge can taint our work and general thinking and reflects upon the importance of what is arguably our most valuable weapon against ignorance a sound mathematical education

Between Geography and History Katherine Clarke, 2000-01-13 The late Hellenistic period witnessed the rise of an imperial power whose dominion extended across almost the whole known world The Roman empire radically affected geographical conceptions evoking new ways of describing the earth and of constructing its history In this book the writings of three literary figures of the age are explored the History of Polybius two fragmentary works of Posidonius and the universal Geography of Strabo Analysis in terms of the philosophical concepts of time and space reveals the generic fluidity of such geographical and historical works Furthermore these broadly conceived accounts are shown to be appropriate literary media for the response to Roman power They use but transform pre existing Greek traditions in order to describe the new world of Rome making them fitting products of a transitional age This book provides a new approach to Roman imperialism by considering its impact on historiography and geographical thought
