Your Student's Achievement Today

The graph to the left provides the National Percentile Rank (NPR) for each test and test composite in the assessment. The NPR indicates the percent of students in the same grade who obtained a lower score than your child.

Your Student's NSS Achievement Yesterday and Today

The Iowa Assessments measure student achievement and growth. The National Standard Score (NSS) describes a student's location on an achievement continuum from elementary through high school. The National Grade Equivalent (NGE) describes student performance in terms of grade level and month. Both NSS and NGE make it possible to follow your child's educational growth from year to year by comparing this year's scores to those from earlier years.

Notes:

An NSS in Reading of or above XXX means your student is Proficient in Reading.

An NSS in Mathematics of or above XXX means your student is Proficient in Mathematics.

An NSS in Science of or above XXX means your student is Proficient in Science.

Your student has a predicted ACT score range of 25-30. The predicted ACT score range provides students with some indication of the scores they might expect to receive the first time they take the ACT. For additional information about postsecondary education opportunities, students should consult with their counselors and available resources in the school.

Tests and Assessments in Counseling Bill

McHenry, Kathryn C. MacCluskie, Jim McHenry, 2018-04-09 Tests and Assessments in Counseling provides students with current information on assessment tools and techniques through detailed case scenarios and vignettes. Going beyond basic information about a multitude of assessments, the authors focus on the use of instruments in individual cases to allow readers to more fully grasp the integral relationship between tests and assessment data and the counseling process. Chapters guide students through choosing the most effective assessment tool, successfully administering the assessment, and making meaningful and useful results of the data with the client. Test questions are also included at the end of each chapter.

NABE Review of Research and Practice Virginia Gonzalez, Josefina Tinajero, 2005-03-23 The National Association of Bilingual Education (NABE) published electronic issues of Volumes 1 and 2 of the NABE Journal of Research and Practice to offer archival records of 2002 and 2003 NABE conferences presentations. Beginning with Volume 3, the title of the publication is changed to NABE Review of Research and Practice and is published by Lawrence Erlbaum Associates Inc. for NABE. NABE Review of Research and Practice Volume 3 fulfills the following goals: to establish an annual archival record of cutting edge NABE conference presentations that generate new knowledge and advance the field of bilingual education research; to mentor junior scholars within the academic setting by providing an outlet for developing a publication record with the assistance of established scholars; and by publishing guidelines for developing high quality dissertation research proposals and completed studies; and for university based efforts to mentor doctoral students in bilingual education. To offer in the Research section an outlet for theoretical and applied research studies that represent innovative conceptual and philosophical perspectives; and that also implement innovative methodologies for solving theoretical and applied problems in bilingual education; to provide in the Applied Education Action Research section an outlet for case studies, position papers, and action research that comes from practitioners in the field of bilingual education who are implementing research methodologies in their own classrooms or school districts; e.g., teacher based research, evaluation studies conducted in the implementation of bilingual education, federal and state grants; and to present in the Position Papers and Reflections section reflections of experiences of bilingual researchers, practitioners, and public school and higher education students that give insightful self accounts of the experiences of ethnic minority students, scholars, and educators that allow readers to learn from them as role models and advocates.
