The United States Catalog ,1928 The United States Catalog Ida M. Lynn,1928 The Cumulative Book Index ,1928 A world list of books in the English language Capturing the Pícaro in Words Konstantin Mierau,2018-07-17
Capturing the Pícaro in Words discusses the framing of the transient marginals of early modern Madrid in the literary pícaro. It compares the perceptions of constables, shopkeepers and criminals to those of mass produced literary representations and argues that the literary representations displaced the pícaro assigning the marginals different places in the literary texts in order to centralise the problem of urban vagrancy. The texts spanned the pícaro thus establishing the image of a culturally homogenous group and lastly silenced the pícaro under representing the power marginals in the city derived from their knowledge of the information flows in the city. Hierarchy, Commerce and Fraud in Bourbon Spanish America Ruth Hill,2005 Using El Lazarillo de ciegos caminantes the Guide for Blind Rovers by Alonso Carrio de Lavandera the best known work of the era as a jumping off point for a sprawling discussion of 18th century Spanish America Ruth Hill argues for a richer more nuanced understanding of the relationship between Spain and its western colonies. Armed with primary sources including literature, maps, census data, letters and diaries Hill reveals a rich world of intrigue and artifice where identity is surprisingly fluid and always in question. More importantly Hill crafts a complex argument for reassessing our understanding of race and class distinctions at the time with enormous implications for how we view conceptions of race and class today.

Hispania ,1971 Vol 1 includes Organization number published Nov 1917 Gender Matters Mara R. Wade,2013-12-05
Gender Matters opens the debate concerning violence in literature and the arts beyond a single national tradition and engages with multivalent aspects of both female and male gender constructs mapping them onto depictions of violence. By defining a tight thematic focus and yet offering a broad disciplinary scope for inquiry the present volume brings together a wide range of scholarly papers investigating a cohesive topic: gendered violence from the perspectives of French, German, Italian, Spanish, English and Japanese literature, history, musicology, art history and cultural studies. It interrogates the intersection of gender and violence in the early modern period cutting across national traditions, genres, media and disciplines By engaging several levels of discourse the volume advances a holistic approach to understanding gendered violence in the early modern world The convergence of discourses concerning literature the arts emerging print technologies social and legal norms and textual and visual practices leverages a more complex understanding of gender in this period Through the unifying lens of gender and violence the contributions to this volume comprehensively address a wide scope of diverse issues approaches and geographies from late medieval Japan to the European Enlightenment While the majority of essays focus on early modern Europe they are broadly contextualized and informed by integrated critical approaches pertaining to issues of violence and gender
