How to Contribute

Contributions to the solution chapters are welcome in writing, and you can post answers there through the "Suggester" forum. However, it's strongly recommended to leave answers well-commented and/or agree or disagree with a peer's thing instead of either doing nothing or posting.

- Check any existing questions. If you've noticed the suggesting or answering the problem isn't consistent, either you agree or disagree.
- Check if you can post a problem if someone will help. Remember, this is a community, so we have to be careful.
- Please use other questions or answers if you can't answer a question.

We will do our best to make all suggestions as soon as possible. This process has been made possible by the numerous contributions to the Physics Chapter Forum (please note we all have to be patient and share with other contributors about physics).

- If a question has multiple parts (a, b, c, d) then separate the answer with an "a," spelled answer.
