QC) Top tips for a 16 mark question:

How far did X change between the period _____ and _____?
You may use the following in your answer:

- Paragraph 1
- Paragraph 2

Your essay should follow the burger model and include PDBL paragraphs

Step 1 - Introduction using the words of the question. Background knowledge on the topic + a hint at your opinion (thesis statement).

Step 2 - Main body - 3-4 paragraphs on 2 factors relating the question. These should follow the PDBL structure and include specific detail and explanation.

Step 3 - Conclusion - explain your final judgement based on the evidence of your own knowledge and the sources.

- Each paragraph should begin with a clear signpost which tells the reader what your paragraph will be about. This is also the PDBL element of your factor e.g. One of the main reasons for Hitler's rise to power was his oratory skills.
- Support your point with EVIDENCE. Include specific key details, such as dates, names and places and remember to EXPLAIN and LINK back to the questions.
- Explain how the factor answers the question. If the question is causation tell me how your factor caused F to rise/remain/conflict. If the question is about impact, tell me how your factor had it impact on F. Again similar to QB there are requirements for justifying everything you know about the overall topic of the essay.
- Use your factor back to the question. This is like a one line summary/conclusion e.g. Therefore Hitler's oratory skills were fundamental in his rise to power as it enabled him to garner an enormous amount of support and confidence of the German population which led to the NSDAP being the largest party in the government.
- Try to do a balance of three paragraphs. In total, 4 if you can (making sure you cover each side, though it does not matter if they are unequal).
- In the conclusion you must offer a judgement which is supported by evidence.

QA) Top tips for a 6 mark question:

Describe two features of the _____

Step 1 - Paragraph on one key feature of the event in question

Give evidence in the form of specific details and extend your explanation and descriptions as much as possible

Step 2 - Paragraph on a second key feature

Give evidence in the form of specific details and extend your explanation and descriptions as much as possible

- For each key feature you need evidence that is specific and accurate. This means key names, dates, places, statistics, etc.
- Make sure your points are different enough that they fulfil the criteria of '2 separate features'. Do not re-explain the same feature twice or pick something that could be seen as more or less the same as the first feature you picked.
- Do not do a third feature just to be safe. If the question asks for two, just do two well and use your time elsewhere.
- You must do two features to get over half marks.
- This question does not require a conclusion.

of Liberty Ana Raquel Minian, 2024-04-16 Winner of the PEN John Kenneth Galbraith Award for Nonfiction Finalist for the Zcalo Public Square Book Prize Meticulous Storytelling allows Minian to convey the physical and emotional toll of detention with potent specificity The result is a book length plea against dehumanization at least for those who are willing to listen Jennifer Szalai The New York Times A probing work of narrative history that reveals the hidden story of immigrant detention in the United States deepening urgent national conversations around migration In 2018 many Americans watched in horror as children were torn from their parents at the US Mexico border under Trump's family separation policy But as historian Ana Raquel Minian reveals in In the Shadow of Liberty this was only the latest chapter in a saga tracing back to the 1800s one in which immigrants to the United States have been held without recourse to their constitutional rights Braiding together the vivid stories of four migrants seeking to escape the turmoil of their homelands for the promise of America In the Shadow of Liberty gives this history a human face telling the dramatic story of a Central American asylum seeker a Cuban exile a European war bride and a Chinese refugee As we travel alongside these indelible characters In the Shadow of Liberty explores how sites of rightlessness have evolved and what their existence has meant for our body politic Though these black sites exist out of view for the average American their reach extends into all of our lives the explosive growth of the for profit prison industry traces its origins to the immigrant detention system as does the emergence of Guantanamo and the gradual unraveling of the right to bail and the presumption of innocence Through these narratives we see how the changing political climate surrounding immigration has played out in individual lives and at what cost But as these stories demonstrate it doesn't have to be like this and a better way might be possible

The Making and Remaking of Australasia Tony Ballantyne, 2022-11-03 This book explores the emergence of Australasia as a way of thinking about the culture and geography of this region Although it is frequently understood to apply only to Australia and New Zealand the concept has a longer and more complicated history Australasia emerged in the mid 18th century in both French and British writing as European empires extended their reach into Asia and the Pacific and initially held strong links to the Asian continent The book shows that interpretations and understandings of Australasia shifted away from Asia in light of British imperial interests in the 19th century and the concept was adapted by varying political agendas and cultural visions in order to reach into the Pacific or towards Antarctica The Making and Remaking of Australasia offers a number of rich case studies which highlight how the idea itself was adapted and moulded by people and texts both in the southern hemisphere and the imperial metropole where a range of competing actors articulated divergent visions of this part of the British Empire An important contribution to the cultural history of the British Empire Australia New Zealand and Pacific Studies this collection shows how Australasia has had multiple often contrasting meanings
