Next Generation of Internet of Things Raghvendra Kumar, Brojo Kishore Mishra, Prasant Kumar Pattnaik, 2021-06-14 This book includes selected papers from the International Conference on Next Generation of Internet of Things ICNGIoT 2021 organized by the Department of Computer Science and Engineering School of Engineering GIET University Gunupur Odisha India during 5-6 February 2021. The book covers topics such as IoT network design and architecture, IoT network virtualization, IoT sensors, privacy and security for IoT, SMART environment, social networks, data science and data analytics, cognitive intelligence and augmented intelligence, and case studies and applications. The Fierce Urgency of Now Daniel Fischlin, Ajay Heble, George Lipsitz, 2013-06-14 The Fierce Urgency of Now links musical improvisation to struggles for social change, focusing on the connections between the improvisation associated with jazz and the dynamics of human rights struggles and discourses. The authors acknowledge that at first glance improvisation and rights seem to belong to incommensurable areas of human endeavor. Improvisation connotes practices that are spontaneous, personal, local, immediate, expressive, ephemeral, and even accidental, while rights refer to formal standards of acceptable human conduct, rules that are permanent, impersonal, universal, abstract, and inflexible. Yet the authors not only suggest that improvisation and rights can be connected; they insist that they must be connected. Improvisation is the creation and development of new, unexpected, and productive cocreative relations among people. It cultivates the capacity to discern elements of possibility, potential, hope, and promise where none are readily apparent. Improvisers work with the tools they have in the arenas that are open to them. Proceeding without a written score or script, they collaborate to envision and enact something new to enrich their experience in the world by acting on it and changing it. By analyzing the dynamics of particular artistic improvisations, mostly by contemporary American jazz musicians, the authors reveal improvisation as a viable and urgently needed model for social change. In the process, they rethink politics, music, and the connections between them. Honda's Global Local Corporation A. Mair, 1993-11-17 Japanese carmaker Honda has pioneered a new breed of multinational enterprise: true manufacturing at the global scale. Honda has been a leader in confounding predictions that Japan's carmakers would and could never transfer their success abroad, and that a wholesale Japanization of the West would be provoked if they did. The book covers manufacture, research and development, sourcing of components, human resources, and labour relations; collaboration with Western firms; political controversy; and the role of concepts and ideas in Japan, North America, and Europe. Torque, 2008-11 Singapore's best homegrown car magazine with an editorial dream team driving it. We fuel the need for speed. Jazz Sells: Music, Marketing, and Meaning Mark Laver, 2015-02-11 Jazz Sells: Music, Marketing, and Meaning examines the issues of jazz consumption and capitalism through advertising. On television, on the Internet, in radio, and in print, advertising is a critically important medium for the mass dissemination of music and musical meaning. This book is a study of the use of the jazz genre as a musical signifier in promotional efforts, exploring how the relationship between brand jazz music and jazz discourses come together to create meaning for the product and the consumer At the same time it examines how jazz offers an invaluable lens through which to examine the complex and often contradictory culture of consumption upon which capitalism is predicated
