An Undoing Matthew Hansen, 2019-08-08 We've all been through events in which we feel at least in the moment that there is no coming back. Maybe it was a severe break-up, a fall from grace as a leader, an occupational dream shattered, a psychological and emotional breakdown, or as in many western films you are a leader who has come to the middle of your life, the hopes and expectations you held have crashed around you and all of a sudden you feel lost. Our brains often translate this as some sort of trauma. On paper, my life looked perfect: married, four kids, house in the downtown area of one of the best cities in the United States, and a vocation that many spend much time and money trying to gain. However, at some point I lost myself. I got swallowed up in the hype and movement and forgot what it was all about. I want to invite you into my story and take you on a journey of resilience—the same journey that helped me come back better than before—the journey that will help you begin to recreate your life.
