Christians, 2019-03-21 Presents a new theory of media ethics that is explicitly international Importing Transnational Education Vangelis Tsiligiris, William Lawton, Christopher Hill, 2020-12-19 This book explores the impacts of transnational education TNE from the perspectives of institutions and countries that primarily act as hosts The authors describe and analyse TNE across a wide geographical area comprised of both established and emerging TNE host countries from Europe to Southeast Asia to less discussed countries such as Nepal and Uzbekistan Complementing the 2018 volume Exporting Transnational Education Institutional Practice Policy and National Goals the book is organised into three principal themes the impacts of TNE on capacity building the sustainability of such developments and the impacts on the student experience in host countries As TNE is a dynamic and fast moving area of international higher education this book will appeal to scholars and administrators of international and transnational education Writing Centres in Higher Education

Laura Dison, Sherran Clarence, 2017-01-01 Writing Centres in South Africa and globally are now well established academic support centres within many universities Historically tasked with supporting students as they grapple with the demands of academic writing many centres are now moving beyond their own walls to work with academic tutors lecturers and departments to rethink the ways in which knowledge is transformed into different kinds of disciplinary writing This move raises pertinent questions for writing centre directors tutors consultants and for the universities that house them how does a centre tasked with supporting more general academic literacy development through writing pedagogies initiate students into a range of particularised discourse communities How do writing centre staff and disciplinary lecturers negotiate their shared and separate concerns for student learning through collaborative writing development projects How do writing centres work with assignments and forms of literacy that challenge them to reconfigure their own pedagogical practices and expand their conceptions of writing support How do writing centres maintain their core focus as they move flexibly beyond their own spaces to understand the nature of disciplinary writing This collection of essays reflects on the ways in which writing centres in South Africa are working in and across disciplines Institutional constraints and challenges that arise from these collaborations are addressed and opportunities for transforming teaching and learning spaces are explored The chapters speak to the global move in higher education to reconsider how knowledge is made who makes it and how support and development opportunities for students and lecturers should be created and sustained across the disciplines This volume contributes to the body of knowledge in the growing field of the scholarship of teaching and learning in higher education in South Africa It builds on the work of the first collection of such essays Changing Spaces Writing Centres and Access to Higher Education Eds A Archer and R Richards 2011 SUN PReSS to understand why working within the disciplines is so critical for writing development in a South African context

Between Worlds Linda Chisholm, 2017-11-30 How the story of how missionary schools adopted the Bantu education reforms gives insight into the ongoing legacy of the apartheid in the South African educational system The transition from apartheid to the post apartheid era has highlighted questions about the past and the persistence of its influence in present day South Africa This is particularly so in education where the past continues to play a decisive role in relation to inequality Between Worlds German Missionaries and the Transition from Mission to Bantu Education in South Africa scrutinises the experience of a hitherto unexplored German mission society probing the complexities and paradoxes of social change in education It raises challenging questions about the nature of mission education legacies Linda Chisholm shows that the transition from mission to Bantu Education was far from seamless Instead past and present interpenetrated one another with resistance and compliance cohabiting in a complex new social order At the same time as missionaries complied with the new Bantu Education dictates they sought to secure a role for themselves in the face of demands of local communities for secular state controlled education When the latter was implemented in a perverted form from the mid 1950s one of its tools was textbooks in local languages developed by mission societies as part of a transnational project with African participation Introduced under the guise of expunging European control Bantu Education merely served to reinforce such control The response of local communities was an attempt to domesticate and master the foreign body of the mission so as to create access to a larger world This book focuses on the ensuing struggle fought on many fronts including medium of instruction and textbook content with concomitant sub texts relating to gender roles and sexuality South Africa s educational history is to this day informed by networks of people and ideas crossing geographic and racial boundaries The colonial legacy has inevitably involved cultural mixing and hybridisation with paradoxically parallel pleas for purity Chisholm explores how these ideas found expression in colliding and coalescing worlds one African the other European caught between mission and apartheid education Civil Remedies and Human Rights in Flux Ekaterina Aristova,Ugljesa Grusic,2022-02-24 What private law avenues are open to victims of human rights violations This innovative new collection explores this question across sixteen jurisdictions in the Global South and Global North It examines existing mechanisms in domestic law for bringing civil claims in relation to the involvement of states corporations and individuals in specific categories of human rights violation i assault or unlawful arrest and detention of persons ii environmental harm and iii harmful or unfair labour conditions Taking a truly global perspective it assesses the question in jurisdictions as diverse as Kenya Switzerland the US and the Philippines A much needed and important new statement on how to respond to human rights violations The Common Core Standards Jared T. Bigham, EdD,2015-02-03 In an effort to ensure that all U S students are equally prepared for college and careers new academic standards for Kindergarten through 12th grade have been established and adopted by nearly every state Idiot s Guides The Common Core Standards helps parents students teachers and administrators understand the details of this historic initiative An outline of what makes these standards different from previous statewide standards a grade level breakdown of the standards for English math and other subject areas details of how students learning will change under the Common Core ways parents can help students at home information on the assessments that students will take and answers to the most commonly asked questions are all included Self-Directed Learning in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic Josef de Beer,Neal Petersen,Elsa Mentz,Robert J. Balfour,2023-03-01 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education with a specific focus on research into the enhancement of self directed learning and contributes to the discourse on creating a disposition towards self directed learning during the social and academic integration of first year students within higher education institutions Two chapters also deal with research on the development of self directed learning and nuanced understandings of the chosen professions of Law and Health Sciences students The target audience is scholars working in the fields of teacher education self directed learning engaging pedagogies problem based learning cooperative learning and gamification Whereas social constructivist learning theory served as an overarching theoretical framework for the virtual excursions the various chapters in the book also draw on other secondary theories such as self determination theory social interdependence theory gender theory and the with fitness model of Kounin 1970 WHO guidelines on mental health at work World Health Organization,2022-09-28 Guidelines on Mental Health at Work An estimated 15% of working age adults have a mental disorder at any point in time Depression and anxiety are estimated to cost the global economy US 1 trillion each year driven predominantly by lost productivity People living with severe mental health conditions are largely excluded from work despite participation in economic activities being important for recovery The WHO guidelines on mental health at work provide evidence based recommendations to promote mental health prevent mental health conditions and enable people living with mental health conditions to participate and thrive in work The recommendations cover organizational interventions manager training and worker training individual interventions return to work and gaining employment The guidelines on mental health at work aim to improve the implementation of evidence based interventions for mental health at work Excessive and Problematic Smartphone Usage Aviv M.
