Japanese Women Novelists in the 20th Century Sachiko Shibata Schierbeck, 1994 It was not until Kawabata Yasunari won the 1968 Nobel Prize for literature that the average Western reader became aware of contemporary Japanese literature A few translations of writings by Japanese women have appeared lately yet the West remains largely ignorant of this wide field In this book Sachiko Schierbeck profiles the 104 female winners of prestigious literary prizes in Japan since the beginning of the century It contains summaries of their selected works and a bibliography of works translated into Western languages from 1900 to 1993 These works give insight into the minds and hearts of Japanese women and draw a truer picture of the conditions of Japanese community life than any sociological study would present Schierbeck's 104 biographies constitute a useful reference work not only to students of literature but to anyone with an interest in women's studies history or sociology

Japanese Women Fiction Writers Carol Fairbanks, 2002-04-26 This study provides annotations for three hundred translated works of fiction by 97 Japanese women writers from the 1890s to the 1990s Also included are 600 annotations of articles books and reviews that cover biographical and critical materials and a 100 page glossary pro International

Postmodernism Hans Bertens, Douwe W. Fokkema, 1997-02-20 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism Postwar Japanese Women Writers Sachiko Shibata Schierbeck, 1989 Review of Japanese Culture and Society, 1986 Consists mainly of articles reprinted from various sources published originally in Japanese since World War II Monographic Series Library of Congress,
