Damages and Compensation Culture Eoin Quill, Raymond J Friel, 2016-11-17 The focus of the essays in this book is on the relationship between compensation culture social values and tort damages for personal injuries A central concern of the public and political perception of personal injuries claims is the high cost of tort claims to society reflected in insurance premiums often accompanied by an assumption that tort law and practice is flawed and improperly raising such costs The aims of this collection are to first clarify the relationship between tort damages for personal injuries and the social values that the law seeks to reflect and to balance then to critically assess tort reforms including both proposals for reform and actual implemented reforms in light of how they advance or hinder those values Reforms of substantive and procedural law in respect of personal injury damages are analysed with perspectives from England and Wales Canada Australia Ireland and continental Europe The essays offer valuable insights to anyone interested in the reform of tort law or the tort process in respect of personal injuries

Hymnal Velma C. Williams, 1890

Tort Law Kirsty Horsey, Erika Rackley, 2015 This best selling undergraduate textbook from leading academics Kirsty Horsey Erika Rackley gives a comprehensive grounding in tort law and carefully chosen learning features help students to become engaged and critical thinkers

English and European Perspectives on Contract and Commercial Law Louise Gullifer, Stefan Vogenauer, 2014-10-23 The purpose of this book is to honour the influential and wide ranging work of Professor Hugh Beale It contains essays by twenty five very distinguished authors each of whom has worked with Professor Beale as a co author as a teaching colleague during his time as Law Commissioner of England and Wales or as part of the study groups working in Europe on contract and commercial law The essays reflect different aspects of Professor Beale s interests Some concentrate on English contract law either from a historical or a current perspective while others are focused on aspects of European contract law There are four essays looking at current issues relating to security and financing and as befits a former Law Commissioner three essays on law reform The essays in the final section discuss trends in transnational and European commercial law This book brings together the reflections of eminent writers from all over Europe on important issues facing contract and commercial law and will be of interest to all scholars and practitioners working in these areas
