Julian Assange: The Unauthorised Autobiography Julian Assange, 2011-09-22 In December 2010 Julian Assange signed a contract with Canongate Books to write a book part memoir part manifesto for publication the following year At the time Julian said I hope this book will become one of the unifying documents of our generation In this highly personal work I explain our global struggle to force a new relationship between the people and their governments In the end the work was to prove too personal Despite sitting for more than fifty hours of taped interviews discussing his life and the work of WikiLeaks with the writer he had enlisted to help him Julian became increasingly troubled by the thought of publishing an autobiography After reading the first draft of the book at the end of March Julian declared All memoir is prostitution In June 2011 with thirty eight publishing houses around the world committed to releasing the book Julian told us he wanted to cancel his contract We disagree with Julian s assessment of the book We believe it explains both the man and his work underlining his commitment to the truth Julian always claimed the book was well written we agree and this also encouraged us to make the book available to readers And the contract By the time Julian wanted to cancel the deal he had already used the advance money to settle his legal bills So the contract still stands We have decided to honour it and to publish This book is the unauthorised first draft It is passionate provocative and opinionated like its author It fulfils the promise of the original proposal and we are proud to publish it Canongate Books September 2011

"Biography, Identity and the Modern Interior" Penny Sparke, 2017-07-05 Through a series of case studies from the mid eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first this collection of essays considers the historical insights that ethno auto biographical investigations into the lives of individuals groups and interiors can offer design and architectural historians Established scholars and emerging researchers shed light on the methodological issues that arise from the use of these sources to explore the history of the interior as a site in which everyday life is experienced and performed and the ways in which contemporary architects and interior designers draw on personal and collective histories in their practice Historians and theorists working within a range of disciplinary contexts and historiographical traditions are turning to biography as means of exploring and accounting for social cultural and material change and this volume reflects that turn representing the fields of architectural and design history social history literary history creative writing and design practice Topics include masters and servants in eighteenth century English kitchens the lost interiors of Oscar Wilde's House Beautiful Elsa Schiaparelli's Surrealist spaces Jean Genet outlaws and the interiors of marginality and architect Lina Bo Bardi's Glass House S Paulo Brazil Julian the emperor: Gregory Nazianzen's two invectives and Libanius' monody, with Julian's

King Gregory (st. of Nazianzus.),1888 Julian (Routledge Revivals) Polymnia Athanassiadi,2014-04-08 Julian An Intellectual Biography first published in 1981 presents a penetrating and scholarly analysis of Julian's intellectual development against the background of philosophy and religion in the late Roman Empire Professor Polymnia Athanassiadi tells the story of Julian's transformation from a reclusive and scholarly adolescent into a capable general and an audacious social reformer However his character was fraught with a great many contradictions tensions and inconsistencies he could be sensitive and intelligent but also uncontrollably spontaneous and subject to alternating fits of considerable self pity and self delusion Athanassiadi traces the Emperor Julian's responses to personal and public challenges and dwells on the conflicts that each weighty choice imposed on him This analysis of Julian's character and of all the issues that confronted him as an emperor intellectual and mystic is based largely on contemporary evidence with particular emphasis on the extensive writings of the man himself The Fiction of Julian Barnes Vanessa

Trollope,Julian Fellowes,2016-03-03 Now adapted for ITV by Julian Fellowes Doctor Thorne is the compelling story in which rank wealth and personal feeling are pitted against one another The squire of Greshamsbury has fallen on hard times and it is incumbent on his son Frank to make a good marriage But Frank loves the doctor's niece Mary Thorne a girl with no money and mysterious parentage He faces a terrible dilemma should he save the estate or marry the girl he loves Mary too has to battle her feelings knowing that marrying Frank would ruin his family and fly in the face of his mother's opposition Her pride is matched by that of her uncle Dr Thorne who has to decide whether to reveal a secret that would resolve Frank's difficulty

Autobiographies Sandeep Parmar,2013-06-06 Mina Loy is recognised today as one of the most innovative modernist poets numbering Gertrude Stein Marcel Duchamp Djuna Barnes and T S Eliot amongst her admirers Drawing on substantial new archival research this book challenges the existing critical myth of Loy as a modern woman through an analysis of her unpublished autobiographical prose Mina Loy s Autobiographies explores this major twentieth century writer s ideas about the modern and how they apply to the modernist writer based on her engagement with twentieth century avant garde aesthetics and charts how Loy herself uniquely defined modernity in her essays on literature and art Sandeep Parmar here shows how ultimately Loy s autobiographies extend the modernist project by rejecting earlier impressions of avant garde futurity and newness in favour of a late modernist aesthetic one that is more pessimistic inward and interested in the fragmentary interplay between the past and present Biographical Dictionary of African Americans, Revised Edition
