La Civilisation Des Abysses:

La Civilisation des abysses James Rollins, 2012-09-20 Alors que toute la Californie se prépare à admirer une spectaculaire éclipse solaire, un tremblement de terre sans précédent se déclenche simultanément. Pire, l'avion présidentiel Air Force One s'écrase dans le Pacifique tandis qu'une série de catastrophes naturelles d'ampleur sans précédent ravage d'autres régions du globe. Ignorant tout du désastre, Jack Kirkland, ex-officier de la Navy, découvre dans les abysses une immense colonne de cristal. Parviendra-t-il à convaincre les autorités du lien entre les propriétés magnétiques extraordinaires de ce cristal, une ancienne civilisation engloutie dans l'océan et l'apocalypse en marche ? Aidé par Karen Grace, une chercheuse canadienne, Jack trouvera-t-il enfin le moyen d'enrayer l'annihilation de la Terre.

Existential Crises in Educational Administration and Leadership Eugénie A. Samier, 2022-06-30 This book examines the theoretical foundations relevant to existential issues in educational leadership and management taking inspiration from Munch's painting The Scream. The book considers internationally relevant topics such as the growth of neoliberalism, globalisation, cultural shifts, forced migration and the digitalisation of the socio-cultural sphere and uniquely positions these crises as existential threats rather than simply political, cultural or social. The volume explores this complex set of dimensions in existential experience and outlines the implications for research and teaching in educational leadership. By exemplifying the narrative and introspective nature of existential research, the book addresses major aspects of the field including the impact such threats have on organisational studies, policy, administrative structures and practices and leadership. This timely collection on existential issues in administration and leadership will appeal to academics, scholars, researchers, practitioners and policy makers. It will also be of great interest for students in teacher education programmes and graduate courses in educational administration and leadership, organisational studies and educational ethics for broad international use.

Encountering Nazi Tourism Sites Derek Dalton, 2019-08-05 Encountering Nazi Tourism Sites explores how the terrible legacy of Nazi criminality is experienced by tourists, bridging the gap between cultural criminology and tourism studies to make a significant contribution to our understanding of how Nazi criminality is evoked and invoked in the landscape of modern Germany. This study is grounded in fieldwork encounters with memorials, museums and perpetrator sites across Germany and the Netherlands, including Berlin Holocaust memorials and museums, the Anne Frank House, the Wannsee House, Wewelsburg Castle and concentration camps. At the core of this research is a respect for each site's unique physical, architectural or curatorial form and how this enables insights into different aspects of the Holocaust. Chapters grapple with themes of authenticity, empathy, voyeurism and vicarious experience to better comprehend the possibilities and limits of affective encounters at these sites. This will be of great interest to upper-level students and researchers of criminology, Holocaust studies, museology, tourism studies, memorialisation studies and the burgeoning field of difficult heritage.

The History of Atlantis Lewis Spence,2003-01-01 The romantic legend of Atlantis has captured imaginations since Plato first told of a glorious island in the Atlantic that sank beneath the waves Speculation has abounded ever since and scientists who formerly dismissed the possibility that Atlantis ever existed were obliged to reconsider partly because of the author of this book Lewis Spence 1874 1955 wrote five books about Atlantis and this one is considered his best Spence sifted through a tremendous body of research in fields from mythology and comparative religion to geography geology and archeology The result is the most authoritative study ever published on the history geography animal life government and religion of this fabled island Essays on Music and Language in Modernist Literature Katherine O'Callaghan,2018-01-12 This volume explores the role of music as a source of inspiration and provocation for modernist writers In its consideration of modernist literature within a broad political postcolonial and internationalist context this book is an important intervention in the growing field of Words and Music studies It expands the existing critical debate to include lesser known writers alongside Joyce Woolf and Beckett a wide ranging definition of modernism and the influence of contemporary music on modernist writers From the rhythm of Tagore s poetry to the influence of jazz improvisation the tonality of traditional Irish music to the operas of Wagner these essays reframe our sense of how music inspired Literary Modernism Exploring the points at which the art forms of music and literature collide repel and combine contributors draw on their deep musical knowledge to produce close readings of prose poetry and drama confronting the concept of what makes writing musical In doing so they uncover commonalities modernist writers pursue simultaneity and polyphony evolve the leitmotif for literary purposes and adapt the formal innovations of twentieth century music The essays explore whether it is possible for literature to achieve that unity of form and subject which music enjoys and whether literary texts can resist paraphrase can be simply themselves

This book demonstrates how attention to the role of music in text in turn illuminates the manner in which we read literature

Cross-Channel Modernisms Davison Claire Davison, 2020-03-27 Explores modernist aesthetics and cultural exchange in Britain France and beyond Offers cutting edge explorations of different aspects of artistic exchange between Britain and France written by experts on both sides of the Channel Provides original close readings of canonical and marginalised modernist texts Opens up new conceptual paradigms by probing multiple meanings related to crossing and channelling modernism Organises chapters around three key themes of translating fashioning mediating that intervene in the new modernist studies Described by Katherine Mansfield in 1921 as a great cold sword between you and your dear love Adventure in the early twentieth century the English Channel or La Manche in French represented both a political and intellectual barrier between European avant gardism and British restraint and a bridge for cultural connection and aesthetic innovation Organised around key terms Translating Fashioning and Mediating this book presents ten original essays by scholars working on both sides of the Channel Cross Channel Modernisms historicises artistic exchanges in Britain France and beyond and proposes a rich conceptual apparatus of crossings and channels through which we can read modernism and understand it as emerging from and intervening in an always already shifting multivalent international context

Virginia Woolf and the Materiality of Theory Derek Ryan, 2013-03-17 Explores Woolf's writing alongside Deleuzian philosophy and new materialist theories of sex animal and life How does Virginia Woolf conceptualise the material world In what ways has Woolf's modernism affected understandings of materiality and what new perspectives does she offer contemporary theoretical debates Derek Ryan demonstrates how materiality is theorised in Woolf's writings by focusing on the connections she makes between culture and nature embodiment and environment human and nonhuman life and matter Through close readings of texts including To the Lighthouse Orlando A Room of One's Own The Waves Flush he details the insights Woolf provides into issues concerning the natural world sexual difference sexuality animality and life itself Ryan opens up Woolf studies to new theoretical paradigms by placing Woolf in dialogue with Gilles Deleuze who cites her modernist aesthetics as exemplary of some of his most important philosophical concepts as well as eminent contemporary theorists including Rosi Braidotti Donna Haraway Karen Barad and Jane Bennett all of whom have influenced the recent critical turn towards new materialisms Locating theory within Woolf's writing as well as locating Woolf within theory Virginia Woolf and the Materiality of Theory Sex Animal Life brings her modernism firmly into the foreground of current debates in literary studies feminist philosophy queer theory animal studies and posthumanities

Virginia Woolf, Europe, and Peace Ariane Mildenberg, Patricia Novillo-Corvalán, 2020-06-13 Virginia Woolf Europe and Peace Transnational Circulations enlarges our understanding of Virginia Woolf's pacifist ideology and aesthetic response to the World Wars by re-examining her writings and cultural contexts transnationally and comparatively through the complex interplay between modernism politics and aesthetics The transnational paradigm that undergirds this collection revolves around the idea of transnational cultural communities of writers artists and musicians worldwide who were intellectually involved in the war effort through the forging of pacifist cultural networks that arose as a form of resistance to war militarism and the rise of fascism The book also offers philosophical approaches to notions of transnational pacifism anti war ethics and decolonization examining how Woolf s prose undermines center edge or self other bifurcations Breathing new life into Woolf s anti war writings through a transnational lens and presenting us with the voices and perspectives of a range of significant scholars and critics the chapters in this volume engage with mobile and circulatory pacifisms calling attention to the intersections of modernist inquiries across the arts art music literature and performance and transnational critical spaces Asia Europe and the Americas to show how the convergence of different cultural and linguistic horizons can significantly expand and enrich our understanding of Woolf s modernist legacy

This volume of essays poetry and prose fiction records various attempts to read the fracture zones created by the discursive strategy of a democratic imagination where space and ideas are opened to new linguistic and literary insights Pride of place is taken by essays on the Caribbean writer Wilson Harris which explore the implications of his awareness of a polyphony of coexistent voices that dislodges the hegemony of Cartesian dualism This group of studies is rounded off with an interview with and searching testimony by Harris himself The further contributions take up the implications of the encounter with alterity strangers natives barbarians in order to underline not only wonder in the face of an unknown presence or the shame through which the subject discovers itself but also the resentment involved in the creation of demonized Others As the poet Charles Tomlinson states what we take to be otherness alterity can be readmitted into our literary consciousness and seen as part of the whole causing us to readjust our awareness of the possibilities of English These essays confirm that resistance is an interface of ambivalence between discursive worlds encouraging us to read the living network of a text contrapuntally Specific topics include Billy Bragg and New Labour Schopenhauer in Britain Objectivist poetry gender and sexual identity in Nancy Cunard in Scottish fiction multivocal discourse in South Africa specific forms of alterity in Jamaica Kincaid in the poetry of Edwin Morgan in allo-Semitism and the deculturalizing perils of globalization
