The Reception of Jane Austen in Europe Anthony Mandal, Brian Southam, 2007-10-13 This volume of international research provides a wide ranging account of Jane Austen's reception across the length and breadth of Europe from Russia and Finland in the North to Italy and Spain in the South In historical terms the survey ranges from the near contemporary since Austen's novels were available in French very soon after their original publication to modern times in those countries which for various reasons linguistic historical or ideological have taken up the novels only in recent years For many Austen's novels are valued for their romantic content as love stories but increasingly they are being perceived as sophisticated ironic narratives In this the quality of translation has been a significant factor and the many film and television adaptations have played an important part in establishing Austen's reputation amongst the public at large It will be seen from this that across Europe Austen's reception history is far from uniform and has been shaped by a complex of extra literary forces

Persuasion after Rhetoric in the Eighteenth Century and Romanticism Yasmin Solomonescu,Stefan H. Uhlig,2024-07-18 While the question of how rhetoric lost authority to modern philosophical and scientific inquiry has drawn much scrutiny we have paid less attention to how values that were once bound up with rhetoric were rearticulated after its demise This volume explores how persuasion ceased to be the seemingly self evident objective of rhetoric and became instead a variable and substantive focus for discussion in its own right After rhetoric ceded much of its centrality to logic and empirical procedures the significance and implications of persuasion were the subject of renewed attention in a range of different fields including philosophy law poetry novels botany cultural criticism historiography political thought and public lecturing Persuasion after Rhetoric in the Eighteenth Century and Romanticism maps how values of persuasion were adapted and diversified in ways that still resonate with current arguments about conviction understanding and belief Contributors address the figurations of persuasion in a range of theorists and writers from Jean Jacques Rousseau Adam Smith Immanuel Kant Edmund Burke and Mary Wollstonecraft to Samuel Richardson Jane Austen Thomas De Quincey Thomas Campbell William Hazlitt Heinrich Heine William Lloyd Garrison and Frances Ellen Watkins Harper This collection offers a detailed account of persuasive interests at the threshold of modernity It also prompts us to rethink persuasion now that its continued efficacy seems at risk in a fragmented public sphere Celebrating Pride and Prejudice Susannah Fullerton,2013 First published in the United Kingdom in 2012 by Frances Lincoln Limited under the title Happily ever after a celebration of Pride and prejudice T p verso
