

The learner will be expected to compile a portfolio of evidence based on the research/investigation on a specific topic to depict, sell, demonstrate or advertise the topic. This portfolio will contain all the evidence on the topic that the learner could gather. This should include reports, presentations, photographs, pictures, graphs, sketches, diagrams, etc.

An example of a portfolio of evidence: Evidence of the degradation of the environment.

4.5.2 Project

The project will be a piece of work in which knowledge, skills and values which lead towards competence in the specific or integrated content, are demonstrated. The project requires extended reading and writing on the part of the learner. The project will involve thorough investigation into and sourcing information on a selected topic in the curriculum. This could take the form of an interview, observation and making suggestions to improve upon the topic. The objective for the project should be clear and thorough planning should take place, e.g. preparing the questions for an interview. This is followed by the research, and finally the data/ information has to be collated into evidence. The evidence will be in the form of an essay with sub-headings relating to the criteria of the task.

Although learners will spend time outside of contact time to collect resources and information, the completion of the task has to be facilitated by the teacher in class time. The topic and nature of the project will be determined by the content covered according to the annual teaching plan. Learners should be given a project before the end of the second term, after the content related to the project has been addressed, for submission during the third term. Learners will need adequate guidance at the outset of the project and progress should be monitored throughout. All assessment criteria applicable to the project has to be discussed with the learners prior to the commencement of the project.

Examples of a project:

- Community project to address a social or environmental issue
- Investigation of lifestyle choices and their impact on the overall well-being of the South African youth
- Research and apply decision-making skills to challenging situations set in different contexts: a plan of action or advice for long-term success should be provided.

When preparing a project, consider these minimum requirements:

- A cover page
- A table of contents
- Text divided into paragraphs/sections as indicated in the instructions/criteria for the project
- Pictures, photos, diagrams and graphs may be included
- Include a bibliography
- The project should be bound or stapled.

4.5.3 Examinations

Examinations of at least 90 minutes each will be administered twice a year as part of the internal examination

The Partisan Next Door Ethan C. Busby, Adam J. Howat, Jacob E. Rothschild, Richard M. Shafranek, 2021-09-29 In the United States politics has become tribal and personalized The influence of partisan divisions has extended beyond the political realm into everyday life affecting relationships and workplaces as well as the ballot box To help explain this trend we examine the stereotypes Americans have of ordinary Democrats and Republicans Using data from surveys experiments and Americans own words we explore the content of partisan stereotypes and find that they come in three main flavors parties as their own tribes coalitions of other tribes or vehicles for political issues These different stereotypes influence partisan conflict people who hold trait based stereotypes tend to display the highest levels of polarization while holding issue based stereotypes decreases polarization This finding suggests that reducing partisan conflict does not require downplaying partisan divisions but shifting the focus to political priorities rather than identity a turn to what we call responsible partisanship

The Social Life of Prayer Andreas Bandak,2021-03-09 This book brings the theme of prayer into anthropological discussion Across diverse significant ethnographic case studies five anthropologists attend to prayers and how they are performed and seen to intervene in the social world The studies include Pentecostals in Zambia Charismatic Christians in Ghana Protestants in Scotland Eastern Orthodox Christians in Romania and Catholics in Syria Across these ethnographic cases the book argues that focusing on the social life of prayer offers a significant way to engage with matters close to people Prayers are a way to map affect and the affective relationships people hold in what they are oriented towards and care about Taking its cue from Marcel Mauss the book invites us to go beyond the individual and see how prayers always point to a broader social landscape of obligation and affective investment Focusing on the social life of prayers the book posits accordingly entices a particular form of situated comparison of diverse Christian traditions that pushes the scholarly conversation on Christianity to consider central questions of agency responsibility and subjectivity Taking up prayer as the object of study this book offers novel anthropological perspectives on Christian life and practice The chapters in this book were originally published a special issue of Religion

Post-Truth Public Relations Gareth Thompson, 2020-01-17 This book explores the purpose practice and effects of public relations PR at a time that has been variously described as an era of populism post truth and fake news It considers how PR processes have contributed to the current social condition of post truth and what constitutes PR work in this environment Post Truth Public Relations Communication in an Era of Digital Disinformation proposes that while we can now look back upon the last 80 100 years as a period of classical PR that style is being supplemented by the emergence of a post classical form of PR that has emerged in response to the post truth era This new style of PR consists of a mixed repertoire of communicative work that matches the new geometry of digital media and delivers a mix of online engagement and persuasion in order to meet the needs of increasingly partisan audiences Using contemporary case studies and original interviews with PR practitioners in several countries including China and the Philippines the book investigates how PR workers have reconciled their role as communicative intermediaries with the post truth era of digital disinformation This thought provoking book will be of great interest to researchers and advanced students interested in the changing nature of PR and its practice
