Understanding West Africas Ebola Epidemic Ibrahim Abdullah,Ismail Rashid,2017-10-15 From 2013 to 2015 over 11 000 people across West Africa lost their lives to the deadliest outbreak of the Ebola virus in history Crucially this epidemic marked the first time the virus was able to spread beyond rural areas to major cities overturning conventional assumptions about its epidemiology With backgrounds ranging from development to disease control the contributors to this volume some of them based in countries affected by the Ebola epidemic consider the underlying factors that shaped this unprecedented outbreak While championing the heroic efforts of local communities and aid workers in halting the spread of the disease the contributors also reveal deep structural problems in both the countries and humanitarian agencies involved which hampered the efforts to contain the epidemic Alarminglly they show that little has been learned from these events with health provision remaining underfunded and poorly equipped to deal with future outbreaks Such issues they argue reflect the wider challenges we face in tackling epidemic disease in an increasingly interconnected world

The Study of Science and Religion Carl Reinhold

Brakenhielm,2018-06-06 The main aim of this book is to contribute to the relationship between science and religion This book aims to do constructive theological work out of a particular cultural context The point of departure is contemporary Swedish religion and worldviews One focus is the process of biologization i e how the worldviews of the general public in Sweden are shaped by biological science Is there a gap between Swedes in general and the perceptions of Swedish clergy The answer is based on sociological studies on science and religion in Sweden and the United States Furthermore the book contains a study of Swedish theologians from Nathan Soderblom to the present Archbishop Antje Jackelen and their shifting understanding of the relation between science and religion The philosophical aspects of this relation are given special consideration What models of the relation inform the contemporary scholarly discussion Are science and religion in conflict separate or in mutual creative interaction

Appearance in Reality John Heil,2021-09-16 In Appearance in Reality John Heil addresses a question at the heart of metaphysics how are the appearances related to reality how does what we find in the sciences comport with what we encounter in everyday experience and in the laboratory Objects for instance appear to be colourful noisy self contained and massively interactive Physics tells us they are dynamic swarms of colourless particles or disturbances in fields or something equally strange Is what we experience illusory present only in our minds But then what are minds Do minds elude physics Or are the physicist s depictions mere constructs with no claim to reality Perhaps reality is hierarchical physics encompasses the fundamental things the less than fundamental things are dependent on but distinct from these Heil s investigation advances a fourth possibility the scientific image what we have in physics affords our best guide to the nature of what the appearances are appearances of
