Ligeti Atmospheres Score:

They Shot, He Scored James K. Wright, 2019-04-30 Eldon Davis Rathburn 1916 2008 one of the most multi dimensional prolific and endlessly fascinating composers of the twentieth century wrote more music than any other Canadian composer of his generation During a long and productive career that spanned seventy five years Rathburn served for thirty years as a staff composer with the National Film Board of Canada 1947 76 scored the first generation of IMAX films and created a diverse catalogue of orchestral and chamber works With the aid of extensive archival and documentary materials They Shot He Scored chronicles Rathburn s life and works beginning with his formative years in Saint John New Brunswick and his breakthrough in Los Angeles in connection with Arnold Schoenberg and the LA Philharmonic Orchestra The book follows his work at the NFB his close encounters with some of the most celebrated international figures in his field and his collaboration with the team of innovators who launched the IMAX film corporation James Wright undertakes a close analytical reading of Rathburn s film and concert scores to outline his methods compositional techniques influences and idiosyncratic approach to instrumentation as well as his proto postmodern proclivity for borrowing from diverse styles and genres Authoritative and insightful They Shot He Scored illuminates the extraordinary career of an unsung creative force in the film and music industry

Film and Television Scores, 1950-1979 Kristopher Spencer, 2014-01-10 Hollywood film scores underwent a supersonic transformation from the 1950s through the 1970s This genre by genre overview of film and television soundtrack music covers a period of tremendous artistic and commercial development in the medium Film and television composers bypassed the classical tradition favored by earlier screen composers to experiment with jazz rock funk and avant garde styles This bold approach brought a rich variety to film and television productions that often took on a life of its own through records and CDs From Bernard Herrmann to Ennio Morricone the composers of the Silver Age changed the way movie music was made used and heard The book contains more than 100 promotional film stills and soundtrack cover art images

György Ligeti's Cultural Identities Amy Bauer, Márton Kerékfy, 2017-10-02 Since Gy rgy Ligeti s death in 2006 there has been a growing acknowledgement of how central he was to the late twentieth century cultural landscape This collection is the first book devoted to exploring the composer s life and music within the context of his East European roots revealing his dual identities as both Hungarian national and cosmopolitan modernist Contributors explore the artistic and socio cultural contexts of Ligeti s early works including composition and music theory the influence of East European folk music notions of home and identity his ambivalent attitude to his Hungarian past and his references to his homeland in his later music Many of the valuable insights offered profit from new research undertaken at the Paul Sacher Foundation Basel while also drawing on the knowledge of long time associates such as the composer s assistant Louise Duchesneau The contributions as a whole reveal Ligeti s thoroughly cosmopolitan milieu and values and illuminate why his music continues to inspire new generations of performers composers and listeners

Opera as Soundtrack Jeongwon Joe, 2016-05-13

Filmmakers fascination with opera dates back to the silent era but it was not until the late 1980s that critical enquiries into the intersection of opera and cinema began to emerge Jeongwon Joe focusses primarily on the role of opera as soundtrack by exploring the distinct effects opera produces in film effects which differ from other types of soundtrack music such as jazz or symphony These effects are examined from three perspectives peculiar qualities of the operatic voice various properties commonly associated with opera such as excess otherness or death and multifaceted tensions between opera and cinema for instance opera as live embodied high art and cinema as technologically mediated popular entertainment Joe argues that when opera excerpts are employed on soundtracks they tend to appear at critical moments of the film usually associated with the protagonists and the author explores why it is opera not symphony or jazz that accompanies poignant scenes like these Joe s film analysis focuses on the time period of the post 1970s which is distinguished by an increase of opera excerpts on soundtracks to blockbuster titles the commercial recognition of which promoted the production of numerous opera soundtrack CDs in the following years Joe incorporates an empirical methodology by examining primary sources such as production files cue sheets and unpublished interviews with film directors and composers to enhance the traditional hermeneutic approach The films analysed in her book include Woody Allen s Match Point David Cronenberg s M Butterfly and Wong Kar wai s 2046
