ThompsonCourierRakeRegister_2018 10 25 Transforming Parish Communications Scot Landry,2014-08-15 Are we still a Church capable of warming hearts A Church capable of leading people back to Jerusalem Of bringing them home Pope Francis Meeting with the Bishops of Brazil 28 July 2013 Pope Francis like his predecessors Benedict XVI and John Paul II is calling for Catholics to embrace the new evangelization But there has been ongoing confusion about who is responsible what it really means and what it looks like in practical application How can we respond to the Holy Father's call creating evangelization opportunities that help bring people back to the Church By transforming Catholics into digital missionaries ready and able to take the joy and warmth of the Gospel online via social media to infrequent inactive or ex Catholics around the corner or across the globe Consider this 1 Nearly every lost Catholic in the U S is most likely connected with at least one engaged Catholic or is one retweet or like away from them 2 On the whole Catholics have not been taught to see social media as a way to live out their faith 3 Motivating parishes to put a priority on evangelization has been a challenge 4 Catholics are more likely to be comfortable as digital missionaries than to participate in other forms of evangelization 5 Parishes can offer digital missionary training to parishioners who would welcome it In Transforming Parish Communications Growing the Church Through New Media you ll discover How to embrace the Church s vision of evangelization in new media How entire parishes can become hubs of digital evangelization and how to overcome obstacles Specific strategies for implementation How to create a consistent digital identity online Best practices for parish websites The nuts and bolts of Facebook Twitter email blogging and more Consider this book your entry into an important and urgent call to each of us as Catholics To bring the warmth of the Gospel to the lost and bring them back to the Church Visit the companion site for more

Constructing an Ethical Hacking Knowledge Base for Threat Awareness and Prevention Dhavale, Sunita Vikrant, 2018-12-14 In recent decades there has been incredible growth in the use of various internet applications by individuals and organizations who store sensitive information online on different servers This greater reliance of organizations and individuals on internet technologies and applications increases the threat space and poses several challenges for implementing and maintaining cybersecurity practices Constructing an Ethical Hacking Knowledge Base for Threat Awareness and Prevention provides innovative insights into how an ethical hacking knowledge base can be used for testing and improving the network and system security posture of an organization. It is critical for each individual and institute to learn hacking tools and techniques that are used by dangerous hackers in tandem with forming a team of ethical hacking professionals to test their systems effectively. Highlighting topics including cyber operations, server security, and network statistics, this publication is designed for technical experts, students, academicians, government officials, and industry professionals. Searcher, 2009. New Media Literacies and Participatory Popular Culture Across Borders. Bronwyn Williams, Amy A. Zenger, 2012-05-23. How do students' online literacy practices intersect with online popular culture? In this book, scholars from a range of countries including Australia, Lebanon, Nepal, Qatar, South Africa, Turkey, and the United States illustrate and analyze how literacy practices that are mediated through and influenced by popular culture create both opportunities and tensions for secondary and university students. The authors examine issues of theory, identity, and pedagogy as they address participatory popular culture sites such as fan forums, video blogs, social networking sites, anime memes, and comics and graphic novels. Uniquely bringing together scholarship about online literacy practices and the growing body of work on participatory popular culture, New Media Literacies and Participatory Popular Culture across Borders makes distinctive contributions to an emerging field of study, pushing forward scholarship about literacy and identity in cross-cultural situations and advancing important conversations about issues of global flows and local responses to popular culture.

Outsiders at Home. Nazita Lajevardi, 2020-05-28. Discrimination against Muslim Americans has soared over the last two decades, with hostility growing especially acute since 2016, in no small part due to targeted attacks by policymakers and media. Outsiders at Home offers the first systematic, empirically driven examination of the status of Muslim Americans in US democracy, evaluating the topic from a variety of perspectives. To what extent do Muslim Americans face discrimination by legislators, the media, and the general public? What trends do we see over time, and how have conditions shifted? What, if anything, can be done to reverse course? How do Muslim Americans view their position, and what are the psychic and sociopolitical tolls? Answering each of these questions, Nazita Lajevardi shows that the rampant, mostly negative discussion of Muslims in media and national discourse has yielded devastating political and social consequences.
