Trends in Retail Marketing in India Marri Sreenivasulu, 2017-07-20. Retail is the sale of goods to end users not for resale but for use and consumption by the purchaser. This excludes direct interface between the manufacturers and institutional buyers such as the government and other bulk customers. Retailing is the last link that connects the individual consumers with the manufacturing and distribution chain. Retail is the fastest growing sector in the Indian economy. Traditional markets are making way for new formats such as departmental stores, hypermarkets, supermarkets and specialty stores. Western style malls have begun appearing in metros and second rung cities alike, introducing the Indian consumer to an unparalleled shopping experience. This comparative study focuses on the customers of Reliance Mart and Big Bazaar with regard to their buying tactics, shopping behavior, expectations, perceptions, satisfaction and brand loyalty.
