Mathematics IV Computer Science V General English More than 2500 questions for Practice with Hints Solutions are provided Part B provides 15 Practice Sets on the newly released pattern of 50 MCQs The Book is strictly based on the syllabus defined by Agniveer notification Comprehensive Guide for NIACL Assistant Preliminary & Main Exams with 2024 Previous Year Questions | New India Assurance Company Limited Disha Experts, The Book Comprehensive Guide for NIACL Assistant Preliminary Main Exams covers Specific sections for Reasoning Ability General English Quantitative Aptitude and General Awareness with special reference to Current Affairs Computer Knowledge To the point theory of all the sections divided into chapters with illustrations followed by an exercise with detailed solutions A total of 2000 MCQs with explanations to Quant Reasoning English sections The book covers 2024 Prelim and Main Exam Solved Paper Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it Women of Piracy Brittany VandeBerg, 2023-01-20 Drawing from an interdisciplinary body of research and data Women of Piracy employs a criminological lens to explore how women have been involved in and impacted by maritime piracy operations from the 16th century to present day piracy off the coast of Somalia The book challenges and resists popular understandings of women as peripheral to the criminal enterprise of piracy by presenting and analyzing their roles and experiences as victims perpetrators and criminal justice actors showing that women have been and continue to be central figures in maritime piracy Unfolding in three parts part one sets the context by providing readers with a history of the masculinization of the sea Part two focuses on the gendered division of labor in piracy operations discussing how and why the roles and responsibilities associated with this gendered labor have emerged persisted evolved and or ceased over time as well as considering which roles and responsibilities appear to be context specific and which seem to transgress geographical locations Part three explores how women have or have not been brought to justice for their participation in crimes of piracy as well as the roles of women in efforts to combat piracy The overarching objective is to ignite a broader discussion about the various cultural social historical and economic forces that create opportunities for women to participate in maritime piracy and counter piracy why women continue to be invisible figures of piracy and what implications this has for how we study police and bring pirates to justice The first criminologically grounded global study exploring the continuity and evolution of women in maritime piracy this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology gender feminist studies international relations anthropology history and political geography It will also be useful to maritime and law enforcement professionals

Report of the Royal Commissioners Appointed to Enquire Into the Treatment of Immigrants in Mauritius

Great Britain. Royal Commission to Enquire into the Treatment of Immigrants in Mauritius,1875 Executive-legislative (Im)balance in the European Union Diane Fromage,Anna Herranz-Surrallés,2021-02-11 Ten years after the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty has executive predominance in EU related matters disappeared How have executive legislative relations in the EU evolved over a crisis ridden decade from the financial and migration crises to Brexit and the COVID 19 pandemic The

Lisbon Treaty could be expected to lead to the re balancing of powers in favour of parliaments for it significantly enhanced the roles of both the European Parliament and national parliaments A decade later the contributions to this edited volume examine for the first time in such an extensive breadth and from a multi level and cross policy perspective whether this has actually materialised They highlight that diverging tendencies may be observed and that important variations over time have occurred depending particularly on the occurrence of crises As stated in the fascinating epilogue by Peter Lindseth University of Connecticut School of Law this is an admirably coherent collective volume whose contributions provide an excellent overview of key aspects of executive legislative relations in the European system since the Treaty of Lisbon This edited volume will hence be of interest to both academics and practitioners interested in future reforms designed at the European and national levels to improve the EU s democratic quality

Colonial Theories of Institutional Development
Daniel Oto-Peralías, Diego Romero-Ávila, 2017-03-23 This book analyzes the role played by initial endowments and colonizer identity in seeking to explain institutional development in former colonies It presents a model of two styles of imperialism that integrates the colonial origin and endowment views explaining current institutions The authors argue that Great Britain and Portugal adopted an economically oriented style which was pragmatic and sensitive to initial conditions For this style of imperialism the endowment view is applicable In contrast France employed a politically oriented style of imperialism in which ideological and political motivations were more present This led to a uniform colonial policy that largely disregarded initial endowments In turn the case of Spain represents a hybrid of the two models The empirical analysis presented here reveals a remarkable degree of heterogeneity in the relationship of endowments and colonizer identity with current institutions
