Generic EIS for Nuclear Power Plant Operating Licenses Renewal, 1996 Report on Silica Sand, 2013 Issues in News and Reporting CQ Researcher, 2017-12-29 Can News Outlets Regain the Public's Confidence Can Governments Control the Press in the Internet Age Should Americans Have a Right To Be Forgotten Written by award winning CQ Researcher journalists this collection of non partisan reports focuses on 12 hot button issues facing journalists and news organizations With reports ranging from perceptions of media bias and threats to free speech Issues in News and Reporting promotes in depth discussion facilitates further research and helps readers formulate their own positions on crucial issues And because it is CQ Researcher the reports are expertly researched and written presenting readers with all sides of an issue Key Features Chapters follow a consistent organization beginning with a summary of the issue then exploring a number of key questions around the issue next offering background to put the issue into current context and concluding with a look ahead A pro con debate box in every chapter offer readers the opportunity to critically analyze and discuss the issues by exploring a debate between two experts in the field All issues include a chronology a bibliography photos charts and figures to offer readers a more complete picture of the issue at hand A Career as an Electrician Daniel E. Harmon, 2010-08-15 Introduces the profession of electrician including its history tools training programs and areas of specialization Corporate Social Responsibility Baxi C.V. & Ray, Rupamanjari Sinha, 2012 Corporate Social Responsibility A Study of CSR Practices in Indian Industry takes a close look at the CSR scenario in India While throwing light on the various issues faced by companies and their stakeholders during the implementation of CSR it also offers strategies and recommendations for improved synergy among the stakeholders and a more effective CSR The book is based on the authors primary research study and is illustrated with various company examples and primary surveys on how CSR implementation varies from organization to organization including family based firms public sector enterprises multinational corporations and professional enterprises Sectoral differences in CSR implementation have also been covered as well as the important issue of CSR reporting practices With CSR and sustainability as emerging domains the book will prove to be invaluable for researchers academicians students practitioners and public policy makers Legislative Calendar United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Veterans' Affairs, 2011 Employment, Recession and Recovery in the 50 States Joseph J. Seneca, 2011 Biennial Report Industrial Commission of Minnesota, 1926 African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui's diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public

Charter Schools and the Corporate Makeover of Public Education

Michael Fabricant,Michelle Fine,2015-04-18 This book will reset the discourse on charter schooling by systematically exploring the gap between the promise and the performance of charter schools The authors do not defend the public school system which for decades has failed primarily poor children of color Instead they use empirical evidence to determine whether charter schooling offers an authentic alternative for these children In concise chapters they address a series of important questions related to the recent ascent of charter schools and the radical restructuring of public education This essential introduction includes a detailed history of the charter movement an analysis of the politics and economics driving the movement documentation of actual student outcomes and alternative images of transforming public education to serve all children

Daily Labor Report ,2010-02 Creating Good Jobs Paul Osterman,2020-01-28 Experts discuss improving job quality in low wage industries including retail residential construction hospitals and long term healthcare restaurants manufacturing and long haul trucking Americans work harder and longer than our counterparts in other industrialized nations Yet prosperity remains elusive to many Workers in such low wage industries as retail restaurants and home construction live from paycheck to paycheck juggling multiple jobs with variable schedules few benefits and limited prospects for advancement These bad outcomes are produced by a range of industry specific factors including intense competition outsourcing and subcontracting failure to enforce employment standards overt discrimination outmoded production and management systems and inadequate worker voice In this volume experts look for ways to improve job quality in the low wage sector They offer in depth examinations of specific industries long term healthcare hospitals and outpatient care retail residential construction restaurants manufacturing and long haul trucking that together account for more than half of all low wage jobs The book s sector view allows the contributors to address industry specific variations that shape operational choices about work Drawing on deep industry knowledge they consider important distinctions within and between these industries the financial institutional and structural incentives that shape the choices employers make and what it would take to make more jobs better jobs Contributors Eileen Appelbaum Rosemary Batt Dale Belman Julie Brockman Fran oise Carr Susan Helper Matt Hinkel Tashlin Lakhani JaeEun Lee Raphael Martins Russell Ormiston Paul Osterman Can Ouyang Chris Tilly Steve Viscelli Feasibility Report and Environmental Impact Statement United States. Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Civil Works),2012 Pathways to Excessive Gambling Charlotte Fabiansson,2016-05-13 Pathways to Excessive Gambling draws upon extensive empirical research amongst young people and problem gamblers in Australia comparing it with situations in other territories to shed light on social recreational gambling and the ways in which this can lead to excessive gambling It highlights the relationship between the local community sports clubs governments social recreation economy and regulation of gambling venues identifying the social indicators that typify situations which commonly lead to excessive gambling By developing a society based perspective this volume recognizes problem gambling as an issue for the whole society rather than just the individual focusing on the availability of gambling and identifying its capacity as a construct to encourage or restrict the behaviour of the individual As such this book will be of significance to social scientists with interests in gambling young people social problems and the sociology of leisure and culture
