Em Big Hoom:

Em and the Big Hoom Jerry Pinto, 2014-06-24 The devastatingly original debut novel from a winner of the Windham Campbell Prize for Fiction Profoundly moving I cannot remember when I last read something as touching as this Amitav Ghosh author of The Glass Palace First published by a small press in India Jerry Pinto's debut novel has already taken the literary world by storm Suffused with compassion humor and hard won wisdom Em and the Big Hoom is a modern masterpiece and its American publication is certain to be one of the major literary events of the season Meet Imelda and Augustine or as our young narrator calls his unusual parents Em and the Big Hoom Most of the time Em smokes endless beedis and sings her way through life She is the sun around which everyone else orbits But as enchanting and high spirited as she can be when Em's bipolar disorder seizes her she becomes monstrous sometimes with calamitous consequences for herself and others This accomplished debut is graceful and urgent with a one of a kind voice that will stay with readers long after the last page

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature

Understanding Disability Ranu Uniyal, Fatima Rizvi, 2023-11-02 This edited volume brings together contributions on disability studies organized around two themes literary and sociological aspects The contributors include academics disability activists and researchers from within and outside the Indian periphery While the book strengthens the disability discourse and contributes to building academic scholarship on this subject it also promotes disability activism by giving space to both direct practitioners and persons with disabilities The chapters discuss various analytical and literary aspects of the marginalization experienced by the disabled community and bring forth new and elaborate perspectives It draws connections across multiple identities and includes personal narratives across nations cultures and societies It is an excellent research resource on disability studies in India for scholars and students in the area of humanities education law sociology and social work while at the same time also addressing the global context

Retrieving the Crip Outsider

Someshwar Sati, 2024-03-30 Why are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability

Narrative Art and the Politics of Health Neil Brooks, Sarah Blanchette, 2021-03-15 As countless alterations have taken place in medicine in the twenty first century so too have literary artists addressed new understandings of disease and pathology Disability studies fat studies mad studies end of life studies and critical race studies among other fields have sought to better understand what social factors lead to pathologizing certain conditions while other variations remain normalized While recognizing that these scholarly approaches often speak to identities with radically different experiences of pathologization this collection of essays is open to all critical engagements with narratives of health in order to facilitate the messiness of cross disciplinary collaboration and interdisciplinarity As scientific advances provide insight into a wide range of well being issues and help extend life it is vital that we come to question the very categories of healthy and unhealthy This collection brings together analyses of cultural productions which probe those categorizations and suggest new psychological and philosophical understandings which will help better apply and guide the knowledge being rapidly developed within the life sciences Right of health is a widely accepted human right but in applying a right to healthcare what care and what sort of health are less universally agreed upon The contributors share an interest in addressing who controls answers to the questions of how do we define a healthy body and a healthy life and what are the political forces that influence our definitions of health

Disturbing Spirits Beverly A. Tsacoyianis, 2021-06-15 This book investigates the psychological toll of conflict in the Middle East during the twentieth century including discussion of how spiritual and religious frameworks influence practice and theory The concept of mental health treatment in war torn Middle Eastern nations is painfully understudied In Disturbing Spirits Beverly A Tsacoyianis blends social cultural and medical history research methods with approaches in disability and trauma studies to demonstrate that the history of mental illness in Syria and Lebanon since the 1890s is embedded in disparate but not necessarily mutually exclusive ideas about legitimate healing Tsacoyianis examines the encounters between Western psychiatry and local practices and argues that the attempt to implement modern cosmopolitan biomedicine for the last 120 years has largely failed in part because of political instability and political traumas and in part because of narrow definitions of modern medicine that excluded spirituality and locally meaningful cultural practices Analyzing hospital records ethnographic data oral history research historical fiction and journalistic nonfiction Tsacoyianis claims that psychiatrists presented mental health treatment to Syrians and Lebanese not only as a way to control or cure mental illness but also as a modernizing worldview to combat popular ideas about jinn based origins of mental illness and to encourage acceptance of psychiatry Treatment devoid of spiritual therapies ultimately delegitimized psychiatry among lower classes Tsacoyianis maintains that tensions between psychiatrists and vernacular healers developed as political transformations devastated collective and individual psyches and disrupted social order Scholars working on healing in the modern Middle East have largely studied either psychiatric or non biomedical healing but rarely their connections to each other or to politics In this groundbreaking work Tsacoyianis connects the discussion of global responsibility to scholarly debates about human suffering and the moral call to caregiving Disturbing Spirits will interest students and scholars of the history of medicine and public health Middle Eastern studies and postcolonial literature The Contemporary Novel and the City S. Khanna,2015-12-04 This book examines the deeply divided terrain of the twentieth century city and its formative impact on narrative fiction It focuses on two major world authors at the two ends of the twentieth century who write systematically about the colonial and postcolonial cities they were born in James Joyce and Dublin and Salman Rushdie and Bombay The Novel Cure Ella Berthoud,Susan Elderkin,Indrajit Hazra,2014-08-01 Whether you have a stubbed toe or a stubborn case of the blues within these pages you ll find a cure in the form of a novel or a combination of novels to help ease your pain You ll also find advice on how to tackle common reading ailments such as what to do when you feel overwhelmed by the number of books in the world or if you have a tendency to give up halfway through When read at the right moment in your life a novel can quite literally change it and The Novel Cure is a reminder of that power Written with authority passion and wit here is a fresh approach to finding new books to read and an enchanting way to revisit the books on your shelves
