Funeral Sermon Concordia

Richard J. Mouw, Douglas A. Sweeney

Funeral Sermon Concordia:

The Funeral Sermon in Perspective Charles A. Smith, 1977 Proclaiming Life in Death Donald L. Deffner, 1994

Pastor Craft John T. Pless, John T. Pless, Jacob Corzine, 2021-12-14 Pastoring God's people is not about managerial techniques or quick fix therapies. Pastors are not life coaches or salesmen. They are ambassadors of Christ Jesus called to speak not of their own wisdom but the wisdom of the cross. Their craft is the art of knowing how to distinguish God's Law from His Gospel. They preach the Law not in order to renovate broken lives but to reveal the rot that sin has caused so that God's other word, the good news of the forgiveness of sins, can ring true and clear, restoring the joy of salvation to those caught in guilt and despair. This book is aptly titled Pastor Craft as it takes us into the workshop of a teacher whose life has been devoted to teaching this craft to those calling it. It will be to preach this good Word in season and out of season. Young pastors will find seasoned wisdom here for faithful ministry. Veteran pastors might read the book as something as a refresher course in pastoral theology.

The Suffering and Victorious Christ Richard J. Mouw, Douglas A. Sweeney, 2013-10-15 American theologians tend to focus on the great hope Christians have through Christ's resurrection, emphasizing Christ's victory while minimizing or ignoring his suffering. Through their engagements with Japanese Christians and African American Christians on the topic of Christology, Richard Mouw and Douglas Sweeney have come to recognize and underscore that Christ offers hope not only through his resurrection but also through his incarnation. The authors articulate a more compassionate and orthodox Christology that answers the experience of the global church, offering a corrective to what passes for American Christology today. The book includes an afterword by Willie James Jennings of Duke Divinity School.

Mortuary Science John F. Szabo, 2002 Szabo presents a thorough bibliographical examination of the funeral industry and related subjects. Most citations are annotated with special notes on editions and reprints. The Resurrection Stephen T. Davis, Daniel Kendall, Gerald O'Collins, 1997-05-30 This collection of papers is an international ecumenical and interdisciplinary study of Jesus' resurrection that emerged from the Resurrection Summit meeting held in New York at Easter 1996. The contributions represent mainstream scholarship on biblical studies, fundamental theology, systematic theology, philosophy, moral theology, and homiletics and combine to offer a timely, wide-ranging and well-balanced work on the central truth of Christianity.

The Art of Exegesis Matthew E. Borraso, 2019-02-27 Although he loomed large during his lifetime, Martin Hans Franzmann has faded away in the minds of American Lutherans. Memories of him typically orbit around an appreciation for his hymnody. He was, however, more than a hymn writer. To only understand or appreciate his hymns is to only understand or appreciate a part of him. This book seeks to shine a light on a brilliant and gifted poet of the church by unpacking and analyzing his life and work. In so doing, it is hoped that he will loom large once again. Franzmann's hymns have endured for a reason, namely, because he was singularly focused on teaching people to hear the voice of God in the text of the Scriptures. Musica Christi Marion Lars Hendrickson, 2005 Theological aesthetics is a rapidly expanding subject in the field of religious humanism that until now has not had a participating Lutheran voice Musica Christi A Lutheran Aesthetic fills this void by approaching the rich tradition of music and theology in the Lutheran Church through Christology Furthermore this study shows Christ s full participation in and by music Selections from Lutheran works in Danish German Latin Norwegian and Swedish are offered in English translations for the first time by the author The Princeton Theological Review ,1907 The United States Catalog Eleanor E. Hawkins,1921
