The Wingmen Adam Lazarus, 2023-08-22 CASEY Award Finalist for Best Baseball Book of the Year The untold story of the unique fifty year friendship between two American icons John Glenn the unassailable pioneer of space exploration and Ted Williams indisputably the greatest hitter in baseball history It was 1953 the Korean War in full throttle when two men already experts in their fields crossed the fabled 38th Parallel into Communist airspace aboard matching Panther jets John Glenn was an ambitious operations officer with fifty nine World War II combat missions under his belt His wingman was Ted Williams the two time American League Triple Crown winner who at the pinnacle of his career was inexplicably recalled to active service in the United States Marine Corps Together the affable flier and the notoriously tempestuous left fielder soared into North Korea creating a death defying bond Although over the next half century their contrasting lives were challenged by exhilarating highs and devastating lows that bond would endure Through unpublished letters unit diaries declassified military records manuscripts and new and illuminating interviews The Wingmen reveals an epic and intimate portrait of two heroes larger than life and yet ineffably human ordinary men who accomplished the extraordinary At its heart this was a conflicted friendship that found commonality in mutual respect throughout the perils of war sports dominance scientific innovation cutthroat national politics the burden of celebrity and the meaning of bravery Now author Adam Lazarus sheds light on a largely forgotten chapter in these legends lives as singular individuals inspiring patriots and eventually however improbable profoundly close friends Surviving Deceitful Men M.J. AKA,2025-05-30 My first book revealed to you that the decisions I made had taken me down a very dark path in my life I wore a mask to cover up the pain I was enduring and only showed happiness to the people around me I soon realized that I could hide those painful memories deep inside myself and I knew that it was up to me to move forward and continue to be strong After fleeing the country for almost two years it felt good to return home again My parents were more than happy to have me back in their lives but it was difficult at first I was now in my early thirties and had already been married twice Returning to live under my parents roof proved to be uncomfortable to say the least but I adjusted I had escaped an abusive marriage and I prayed that coming back to my hometown wouldn't open a Pandora's box for me if my abuser found out I had returned I needed to move on with my life and begin again I hoped that this new path of life I was on would lead me to true happiness once and for all In reading my second book you will discover that things are not always what they seem to be Do we ever really know someone Or do they just project what they want you to see covering up their deceitful ways with the mask they wear I will again recommend music for you to listen to as you read through my story The music I suggest will hopefully enlighten you as to how my life was evolving again and how I chose to continue to survive A portion of the profits made from the sale of this book will be donated to the ALS Foundation in my Dear Mother's memory The Compu-mark Directory of U.S. Trademarks ,1991 Racing While Black Leonard T.
