Pierson,Will Bankston,2017-08-31 Christians can often overlook the need to bring their daily vocations in accord with the reality created sustained and purposed through Christ This is no less true for language teachers who find themselves at a difficult interdisciplinary crossroads where the paths of linguistics culture and education merge This challenge should not discourage these educators but instead aid them in their journey to form a pedagogy rooted in theological truths from Scripture one that provides a nuanced approach that glorifies God in a manner specific to the language classroom The contributors of this book outline why and how theology must inform teaching methods so that Christian language educators might better serve their students with both faith and excellence thereby pointing them to the communicative God whose image they bear ELLiC 2019 Dodi Mulyadi ,Heri Dwi Santoso,Siti Aimah,Robbi Rahim, We are delighted to introduce the proceedings of the 3rd English Language Literature International Conference ELLiC 3 This conference has brought researchers developers and practitioners around the world who are leveraging and developing the English language education literature linguistics and translation We strongly believe that this conference provides a good forum for all researchers developers and practitioners to discuss all scientific aspects that are relevant to Digital Society especially in the above fields We also expect that the future conference will be as successful and stimulating as indicated by the contributions presented in this volume

Language for Teaching Purposes Emma Riordan,2018-03-15 This book s innovative approach proposes Language for Teaching Purposes as a distinct field of enquiry and practice within Language for Specific Purposes It uses robust theoretical and empirical evidence to demonstrate the specificity of language used by teachers teaching language and the complex decisions teachers make around language choice and use in language classrooms These complexities are shown to affect Non native Speaker Language Teachers in particular so that their language needs must be met in teacher training programmes Set in the Anglophone foreign language teaching world this book will appeal to anyone involved in teacher training language teaching or the investigation of classroom discourse

Translation and Own-language Activities Philip Kerr,2014-03-27 Translation and Own language Activities provides structured practical advice and guidance for using students own languages within the ELT classroom Translation and Own language Activities provides structured practical advice and guidance for using students own languages within ELT classrooms Taking into account both the growing interest and concerns about use of translation in English lessons the book presents effective ways of integrating carefully chosen activities covering themes such as tools language skills language focus and techniques The practical activities range from using bilingual dictionaries to translating long texts with a number of tasks drawing on easy to use web tools The book also considers the relationship between translation and intercultural understanding
