If the statement is a lot like you, circle the number in the A Lot Like Me column. If the statement is somewhat like you, circle the number in the Somewhat Like Me column. If the statement is not like you, circle the number in the Not At All Like Me column. There are no right or wrong answers.

The example below illustrates how one person responded to the first three items in the LSI. In a similar way, respond to each of the 60 statements in the inventory.
