

Education and Life at School Campus

✓ Exclusively available on IvyPanda

As people say, education is the key to life. It can open doors of opportunity to people and the society in general. Education is not just about acquiring academic knowledge but it is more about applying this knowledge to the wellbeing of the society. Education is multidimensional, it has aspects that enable someone to influence the society, improve social skills and one is able to rise up to the challenges that affect our society. There is therefore an enormous responsibility on the part of those seeking education to do all they can so that they can make use of formal and informal educational opportunities in the society and educational institutions. Since educational institutions like schools, colleges and universities have a primary role of educating the society, it is important for these institutions to create an environment of academic and social excellence.

My school campus has taken an important step to promote an environment of respect and appreciation. This is a very important step that would promote the wellbeing of students, our immediate society and the general society in general. An environment of respect and appreciation will boost the self esteem of all the students at my school campus. Just the way one can look himself at the mirror to judge his/her physical appearance, the power of other people's judgment on someone is very significant. The need for appreciation is an inherent human want that we are all in need of. People are therefore only able to achieve their full potential when they are encouraged by others (not continuously criticized). Internal self confidence is so important because it determines our attitudes which in turn determine our capacity to achieve anything. This internal self confidence is directly proportional to the treatment that we get from others.

Personally in my life, I have felt greatly been pained to see talents go to waste and people's lives wasted just because they had no self confidence. For the few that personally took an obligation to try and encourage, I came to use an approach that I have always believed is helpful. My approach in such circumstances is trying and boring into the past lives of the people concerned. One truth that I have always discovered is that these are people who have suffered from a wrong social atmosphere where they did not get the appreciation and respect for who they are, what they have done and what they are capable of. My observation is that such kind of people normally hide themselves in social cocoons as they live isolated lives since they cannot trust anyone
