The Future of English in Asia Michael O'Sullivan,David Huddart,Carmen Lee,2015-10-05 This collection is unique in bringing together key thinkers on language and literature to discuss the future of English in Asia Many of the contributors are themselves responsible for important sub genres in English linguistics and literary studies and this collection gives them the opportunity to respond to each other directly The different chapters also respond to different contemporary debates and emerging trends and discourses that are hugely important for the future of English language teaching in schools across Asia This volume is also ground breaking in bringing English literary studies and Applied English Linguistics together in the contemporary Asian context The Future of English in Asia includes studies on the following subject areas Cultural Translation in World Englishes Multilingual Education English Futures and the function of Literature English Literary Studies in Japan and English and Social Media in Asia Well into this century it appears that it is still very difficult to know what to expect when it comes to the future of English The future of English will continue to be determined by complex local contexts As it has in other parts of the world the future of English in Asia will continue to rely on the proliferation of its transformations as much as its hegemonic

This volume reflects the widespread acknowledgement that whatever future English has will inevitably be shaped by its fate in Asia. The collection will be a welcome resource for scholars and students of English linguistics, English literary studies and topics related to the teaching of English in Asia.

Algorithmic Reason Claudia Aradau, Tobias Blanke, 2022-04-25 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. Are algorithms ruling the world today? Is artificial intelligence making life and death decisions? Are social media companies able to manipulate elections? As we are confronted with public and academic anxieties about unprecedented changes, this book offers a different analytical prism through which these transformations can be explored. Claudia Aradau and Tobias Blanke develop conceptual and methodological tools to understand how algorithmic operations shape the government of self and other. They explore the emergence of algorithmic reason through rationalities materializations and interventions and trace how algorithmic rationalities of decomposition, recomposition and partitioning are materialized in the construction of dangerous others, the power of platforms and the production of economic value. The book provides a global transdisciplinary perspective on algorithmic operations drawing on qualitative and digital methods to investigate controversies ranging from mass surveillance and the Cambridge Analytica scandal in the UK to predictive policing in the US and from the use of facial recognition in China and drone targeting in Pakistan to the regulation of hate speech in Germany.

The Regulation of Megabanks Katarzyna Parchimowicz, 2022-11-22 Global systemically important banks (G-SIBs) are the largest, most complex and, in the event of their potential failure, most threatening banking institutions in the world. The Global Financial Crisis (GFC) was a turning point for G-SIBs, many of which contributed to the outbreak and severity of this downturn. The unfolding of the GFC also revealed flaws and omissions in the legal framework applying to financial entities. In the context of G-SIBs, it clearly demonstrated that the legal regimes both in the USA and in the EU grossly ignored the specific character of these institutions and their systemic importance, complexity and individualism. As a result of this omission, these megabanks were long treated like any other smaller banking institutions. Since the GFC, legal systems have changed a lot on both sides of the Atlantic and global, and national lawmakers have adopted new rules applying specifically to G-SIBs to reduce their threat to financial stability. This book explores whether the G-SIB specific regulatory frameworks are adequately tailored to their individualism in order to prevent them from exploiting overly general rules as they did during the GFC. Analyzing the specific character and individualism of G-SIBs in relation to their history, normal functioning as well as their operations during the GFC, this book discusses transformation of banking systems and the challenges and opportunities G-SIBs face such as Big Tech competitors, climate related requirements and the COVID-19 pandemic. Taking a multidisciplinary approach which combines financial aspects of operations of G-SIBs and legal analysis, the book describes G-SIB oriented legal frameworks of the EU and the USA and assesses whether G-SIB individualism is adequately reflected, analyzing trends in supervisory action.

European Regulatory Agencies in EU Decision-Making

Christoph Ossege,2016-01-06 European Regulatory Agencies ERAs have become increasingly important features in EU decision making They aim to provide expert advice independent of political or economic considerations This book explains whether and under what conditions ERAs comply with this scientific mandate Expanding on rational institutionalism Ossege provides novel insights into the behaviour of ERAs their autonomy from undue external influence and their impact on EU policy making The empirical comparison of three major ERAs the European Medicines Agency the European Food Safety Authority and the European Chemicals Agency not only shows that agencies capitalise on their expertise and rule making competences to protect their autonomy Rather in making strategic use of their expertise the ERAs also guard their autonomy in areas of high political salience though their policy influence in these areas is partially circumscribed Based on these insights European Regulatory Agencies in EU Decision Making locates its subject in the wider system of European Governance and considers the perennial question of how to reconcile the need for expert advice with democratic decision making
