Marion Blank Four Levels Of Questioning:

Time to Talk Jean Gross, 2013-05-21 Time to Talk provides a powerful and accessible resource for practitioners to help develop their own skills as well as supporting a whole school or setting approach to speaking and listening. Written by the government's former Communication Champion for children, it showcases and celebrates effective approaches in schools and settings across the country. Jean Gross helpfully summarises research on what helps children and young people develop good language and communication skills and highlights the importance of key factors: a place to talk, a reason to talk and support for talk. This practical and engaging book also provides whole class approaches to developing all children and young people's speaking and listening skills, catch-up strategies for those with limited language, ways in which settings and schools can develop an effective partnership with specialists such as speech and language therapists to help children with more severe needs, examples of good practice in supporting parents/carers to develop their children's language skills, answers to practitioners' most frequently asked questions about speech and language. This book is for all school leaders, teachers and Early Years practitioners concerned about the growing number of children and young people with limited language and communication skills. 100 Ideas for Secondary Teachers: Supporting EAL Learners Catharine Driver, Chris

Pim, 2018-04-19 No matter what you teach, there is a 100 Ideas title for you. The 100 Ideas series offers teachers practical, easy-to-implement strategies and activities for the classroom. Each author is an expert in their field and is passionate about sharing best practice with their peers. Each title includes at least ten additional extra creative Bonus Ideas that won't fail to inspire and engage all learners. _____ From EAL experts Chris Pim and Catharine Driver come 100 ideas for providing secondary teachers with strategies and activities to support the induction, assessment and learning of students with English as an additional language (EAL) in tutor time, in specific subjects and at whole school level. There is so much pressure on teachers to deliver engaging and innovative lessons that both adhere to the demands of the curriculum and get the necessary results. Having to plan lessons, implement strategies and create effective resources for EAL students can be a challenge, and with over 15% of secondary school students exposed to a language other than English in their home, according to 2016 data from the Department for Education, it is a challenge affecting every teacher. This book provides practical plans for giving EAL learners general support but also includes ideas linked to specific subjects, especially key problem areas such as mathematics and science, to help EAL learners get the most out of lessons. 100 Ideas for Secondary Teachers Supporting EAL Learners is a treasure trove of adaptable ideas to use for students who are beginners and advanced learners of EAL.
