Command terms

Classification of command terms

In the learning outcomes (see syllabus content) the command terms are associated with assessment objectives 1, 2 or 3 and indicate the depth of understanding that is required of students in relation to each item of content. The grouping of command terms under assessment objectives reflects the cognitive demand of each term and is related to Bloom's taxonomy.

A command term used in an examination question will be:

- the same as that specified in the related learning outcome, or
- another command term associated with the same assessment objective, or
- a command term of less cognitive demand.

For example, if a learning outcome begins with the command term "explain", an examination question based on this learning outcome could contain the command term "explain", another command term associated with assessment objective 2 (such as "analyse"), or a command term associated with assessment objective 1 (such as "describe"), but not a command term associated with assessment objective 3 (such as "evaluate").

inequality and regional disparity Chapter 2 provides an account of Nigeria's recent urban economic growth in view of the nature of the concentration of economic activity across the country's states and cities and of the limited performance of urban and regional economies in generating higher levels of employment and improving business climates Chapter 3 turns to description and assessment of land management urban planning and housing provision procedures and systems which face a variety of challenges with regard to costs affordability capacity equity and efficiency Finally Chapter 4 deals with the financing of urban development particularly the provision of urban public goods and services which is in need of both substantial finance and institutional and systemic improvements and reform

Connecting the Nation Paul Ashton, Tracy Ireland, Jaya Keaney, Alison Wain, Mitchell Whitelaw, 2017-01-01 Aviation has played an important part in shaping Australia's culture and history through the course of the twentieth century Australia embraced aviation from its earliest days eagerly responding to its potential to cover a challenging country to bring far flung communities closer and to provide services that could not be delivered any other way Add the romance of pioneer heroes the vital role of aviation in wartime and the capacity to deliver aid to people in need in Australia and beyond and it is clear why aviation is at the heart of Australia's recent history This book aims to set out the major themes that characterise Australia's aviation history for a broad audience and to provide a foundation for a broader discussion and for further research about how aviation transformed Australia Connecting the Nation is a vital and timely introduction to the history of civil aviation in Australia as we prepare for the centenary of civil aviation services in 2020

From Belonging to Belief Julie McBrien, 2017-06-08 From Belonging to Belief presents a nuanced ethnographic study of Islam and secularism in post Soviet Central Asia as seen from the small town of Bazaar Korgon in southern Kyrgyzstan Opening with the juxtaposition of a statue of Lenin and a mosque in the town square Julie McBrien proceeds to peel away the multiple layers that have shaped the return of public Islam in the region She explores belief and nonbelief varying practices of Islam discourses of extremism and the role of the state to elucidate the everyday experiences of Bazaar Korgonians McBrien shows how Islam is explored lived and debated in both conventional and novel sites a Soviet era cleric who continues to hold great influence popular television programs religious instruction at wedding parties clothing celebrations and others Through ethnographic research McBrien reveals how moving toward Islam is not a simple step but rather a deliberate and personal journey of experimentation testing and knowledge acquisition Moreover she argues that religion is not always a matter of belief sometimes it is essentially about belonging From Belonging to Belief offers an important corrective to studies that focus only on the pious turns among Muslims in Central Asia and instead shows the complex process of evolving religion in a region that has experienced both Soviet atheism and post Soviet secularism each of which has profoundly formed the way Muslims interpret and live Islam

Orthodox Christian Material Culture Timothy Carroll, 2018-05-15 Although much has been written on the making of art objects as a means of engaging in creative productions of the self most famously Alfred Gell's work there has been very little written on Orthodox Christianity and its use of material within religious self formation Eastern Orthodox Christianity is renowned for its artistry and the aesthetics of its worship being an integral part of devout practice Yet this is an area with little ethnographic exploration available and even scarcer ethnographic attention given to the material culture of Eastern Christianity outside the traditional homelands of the greater Levant and Eastern Europe Drawing from and building upon Gell's work Carroll explores the uses and purposes of material culture in Eastern Orthodox Christian worship Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork in a small Antiochian Orthodox parish in London Carroll focusses on a study of ecclesiastical fabric but places this within the wider context of Orthodox material ecology in Britain This ethnographic exploration leads to discussion of the role of materials in the construction of religious identity material

understandings of religion and pathways of pilgrimatic engagement and religious movement across Europe In a religious tradition characterised by repetition and continuity but also as sensuously tactile this book argues that material objects are necessary for the continual production of Orthodox Christians as art like subjects It is an important contribution to the corpus of literature on the anthropology of material culture and art and the anthropology of religion Food Safety in Low and Middle Income Countries Delia Grace,Bassirou Bonfoh,Hung Nguyen-Viet,Barbara Häsler,2024-02-23 Foodborne diseases FBD are an important externality of agriculture and food systems but only recently have they risen up the development agenda as the result of growing awareness of the health and economic burdens of FBD and how they relate to food systems with a focus on low income and middle income countries LMIC particularly African nations The health burden of FBD is comparable with that of malaria and over 90% falls on people in LMIC with an economic burden of more than US 100 million per year FBD have many other less well estimated effects on nutrition gender equity and the environment While understanding of food safety in domestic markets of LMICs has advanced greatly risk management is in its infancy This Research Topic will bring together leading regional perspectives on food safety in LMICs The City Companies Livery Companies of London,1916 INTERMEDIATE II YEAR MATHS II A(English Medium) TEST PAPERS Vikram Books,2014-10-24 Intermediate second Year Maths II A Test papers Issued by Board of Intermediate Education w e f 2013 2014 National Stockman and Farmer ,1886 Aeronautical Engineering: A Cumulative Index to a Continuing Bibliography (supplement 235) ,1989 Aeronautical Engineering ,1989 A selection of annotated references to unclassified reports and journal articles that were introduced into the NASA scientific and technical information system and announced in Scientific and technical aerospace reports STAR and International aerospace abstracts IAA
