Market Solutions For Social And Environmental Problems Social Policy Bonds:

Market Solutions for Social and Environmental Problems Ronnie Horesh, 2011-02-18 Social Policy Bonds are a radical new financial instrument designed to inject market incentives into the achievement of social and environmental goals. These can include global goals such as an end to climate change and violent conflict or national goals such as improved health and literacy and lower rates of crime and unemployment. Social Policy Bonds would target agreed explicit outcomes and reward people for achieving them however they do so. This book is a thorough and entertaining description of how current policymaking is flawed and how Social Policy Bonds could put it right. Injecting Incentives Into the Solution of Social and Environmental Problems Ronnie Horesh, 2000-12 This book outlines a radical new way of achieving social and environmental goals including better health, higher educational standards, lower unemployment, cleaner air and water. Ronnie Horesh's idea has been widely praised by distinguished academics and he has spoken about Social Bonds in many fora. This is the first full length treatment of Social Policy Bonds. Solving the World's Problems Ronnie Horesh, 2004-12 Violent political conflict and climate change threaten us all. Governments and international bodies have failed to respond in any meaningful way. They continue to fund activities and institutions that are only tenuously linked with social and environmental goals. Social Policy Bonds are a new financial instrument that could revolutionize policymaking. By issuing them, governments and the private sector could inextricably tie rewards to outcomes and inject market incentives into the achievement of such universally desired goals as world peace and climate stability. Ronnie Horesh's Social Policy Bond concept has been praised by distinguished economists. He has spoken about it in such forums as the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development, OECD, Cambridge University and think tanks in the United Kingdom, Australia and New Zealand. Handbook of Market Creation for Biodiversity Issues in Implementation OECD, 2004-11-03 This OECD Handbook shows how public policy in the form of market creation can be used to internalise the loss of biodiversity. It promotes the use of markets to ensure that our collective preferences for conservation and sustainable use are reflected in economic outcomes.

Handbook on Social Innovation and Social Policy Stephen Sinclair, Simone Baglioni, 2024-03-14 Applying a critical perspective to stimulate dialogue and mutual learning between the interconnected fields of social innovation and social policy analysis, this dynamic Handbook investigates the often contested relationship between these two areas of enquiry and practice. Bringing together discerning contributions from a diverse team of international scholars and analysts, it explores key policy insights, practical lessons and advances in theoretical understanding which can be drawn from social innovation and social policy. Towards a Spatial Social Policy Adam Whitworth, 2019-11-13 Social policy and human geography are intimately intertwined yet frequently disconnected fields. Whilst social policies are always conceived, implemented and experienced in and through geography, the role of place in social policy scholarship and practice is frequently overlooked. Bringing together experts from both fields, this collection illuminates the myriad of ways that human geography offers rich
