Instructions to the Examiners and Head Examiners:

This marking scheme is a guideline to the examiners and head examiners to help them to mark the students' answer scripts. The examiners and head examiners should follow the instructions given below along with the criteria given in this scheme while scoring students' answer sheets.

- ❖ Accept any other alternative answers other than given in this scheme.
- ❖ Marks awarded to each of the questions should be filled in the chart given on the front page of the answer books.
- ❖ Grand total should be written both in figures and in words.
- ❖ Head examiner should check the grand total of each of the answer books. After writing the grand total signature is a must.
- ❖ In the corrections made by the head examiner, the marks should be written in figures and words as well with short signature.
- ❖ Use of correcting fluid (T-pex) is strictly prohibited.

Your scoring determines the reliability of SEC examination!
