Matric Exam Papers November 2013:

Public Examinations Examined Thomas Kellaghan, Vincent Greaney, 2019-11-19 High stakes public examinations exert a dominant influence in most education systems. They affect both teacher and student behavior especially at the middle and upper levels of secondary education. The content of past examinations tends to dictate what is taught and how it is taught and more important what is learned and how it is learned. By changing aspects of these examinations especially their content and format education systems can have a strong positive impact on teacher behavior and student learning help raise student achievement levels and better prepare students for tertiary level education and for employment. Examination agencies many of which have followed the same procedures over decades can learn from the successes and failures of other systems. This book addresses current issues related to the development administration scoring and usage of these high stakes public examinations identifying key issues and problems related to examinations in many emerging market economies as well as in advanced economies. The book's primary audience consists of public examination officials on national regional and state examination boards but the book should also be of interest to senior education policy makers concerned with certification and learning achievement standards to academics and researchers interested in educational assessment to governmental and education agencies responsible for student selection and to professionals at development organizations. This extremely well written and comprehensive book offers a timely review of the diversity of public examination practices worldwide of the tensions between examinations and learning and of the technical expertise involved in the creation of valid reliable and fair assessments. It reminds us that as the diploma disease takes hold with an ever greater intensity at every stage of education worldwide and the commercial business of testing flourishes those concerned with educational quality and meaningful learning must be on guard to prevent the assessment tail wagging the educational dog. Angela W Little Professor Emerita Institute of Education University College London. This book is very well structured and written and draws on the authors remarkable global knowledge across countries and histories. It will be a great asset both to administrators responsible for examinations and to academics and other professionals who seek to understand the nature and impact of examinations of different types and in different settings. Mark Bray UNESCO Chair Professor of Comparative Education University of Hong Kong and former Director UNESCO International Institute for Educational Planning. I am sure that Public Examinations Examined which thoroughly analyzes the practice of public examinations in different countries and makes profound and well grounded conclusions will arouse very great interest and will serve to further improve public examinations. Victor Bolotov Distinguished Professor Higher School of Economics National Research University Moscow member Russian Academy of Education and former Deputy Minister of Education Russian Federation.

Leadership Approaches to Negotiate Challenges in a Changing Education Landscape Leentjie van Jaarsveld, Kobus Mentz, Charl C. Wolhuter, 2020-12-31 The argumentative point of departure of this scholarly book is the common conviction of specialists in the field of education in South Africa that the national education system is not at a satisfactory level in both the academic and the public discourse Such allegations are made and frequently stronger adjectives than non satisfactory are used Results of international test series in which South Africa has participated such as the 2015 TIMSS tests confirm the negative verdicts found in the public and scholarly discourse This book aims to argue that although the lack of performance could be attributed to a multiplicity of factors one factor that can make a difference in the achievement levels obtained by learners in schools is leadership The book demonstrates that a particular problem of both the scholarly and the public discourse on education in South Africa is an overtone of defeatism or resignation blaming all ills in the education system and educational institutions on historical legacies and or contextual factors such as socio economic deprivation in the catchment areas of schools or poor resources and infrastructure This collected work was inspired by a recently published spate of articles on top performing schools including top performing schools in rural communities in which it was demonstrated that good leadership can overcome such contextual and other challenges The book unpacks the issue of leadership in South African schools from a variety of perspectives thus contributing to the development of the scholarly discourse on Educational Leadership in South Africa The target audience of the book is scholars of Educational Leadership The research reported in the chapters draw on a wide range of methodologies including empirical survey research questionnaires and interviews critical literature surveys and the comparative method

Narrative Psychology and Vygotsky in Dialogue Jill Bradbury, 2019-09-06 This book draws together two domains of psychological theory Vygotsky's cultural historical theory of cognition and narrative theories of identity to offer a way of rethinking the human subject as embodied relational and temporal A dialogue between these two ostensibly disparate and contested theoretical trajectories provides a new vantage point from which to explore questions of personal and political change In a world of deepening inequalities and increasing economic precarity the demand for free decolonised quality education as articulated by the South African Student Movement and in many other contexts around the world is disrupting established institutional practices and reinvigorating possibilities for change This context provokes new lines of hopeful thought and critical reflection on discontinuities across historical time theories of social and psychological developmental processes and the practices of intergenerational life particularly in the domain of education for the making of emancipatory futures This is essential reading for academics and students interested in Vygotskian and narrative theory and critical psychology as well as those interested in the politics and praxis of higher education
