Overall Objective

The overall objective of this course is to look at various topics within five major cultures of the world: Middle East, India, China, Latin America and Africa. Within the context of each culture we will focus on geography, social structure, economy, religion, philosophy, modernization, art, music, literature and government. An emphasis will be placed on the 20th Century for each of these cultures. Each culture will be a unit of approximately seven weeks.

Specific Course Objectives

- To understand the relationship between the past and present in culture.
- To better understand how the various cultures relate to their natural and social environment.
- To develop a knowledge of the vocabulary particular to each culture.
- To develop continuing interest in different cultures through the use of current events.
- To open our minds to positive aspects of cultures different than our own.
- To realize that our culture is made up of various ideas acquired from other parts of the world.
- To realize that people are different and that is just fine.

Materials

- World Cultures A Global Mosaic textbook
- Persepolis, The Story of a Childhood, Marjane Satrapi
- The Colors of the Mountain, Da Chen
- Nectar in a Sieve, Kamala Markandaya or Siddhartha, Hermann Hesse

Grading

Your grade for this class is based on your performance in the following areas:

- Class assignments and participation
- Home work assignments- I do not accept late work.
- Tests & quizzes
- Projects
- Midterm and final exams

Teacher Website/Student Responsibilities

If a student is absent, it is his/her responsibility to find out what work was missed and make it up. My webpage is the primary source for accessing homework assignments, handouts, class assignments, class notes and calendar of daily activities. You should consult the web page before you ask what you missed while you were out. Images, graphs, visual diagrams from the website should also be considered class notes. If you missed the class discussion based on these visual aids, you should speak with another student or Ms. Flexon to get the information.

Resources in Education ,1999-10 Research in Education ,1971 Citizenship Curriculum in Asia and the Pacific David L. Grossman,Wing On Lee,Kerry J. Kennedy,2008-08-31 Based on case studies of 11 societies in the world's most dynamic region this book signals a new direction of study at the intersection of citizenship education and the curriculum Following their successful volume Citizenship Education in Asia and the Pacific Concepts and Issues published as No 14 in this series the editors widely regarded as leaders in the field in the Asia Pacific region have gone beyond broad citizenship education frameworks to examine the realities tensions and pressures that influence the formation of the citizenship curriculum Chapter authors from different societies have addressed two fundamental questions 1 how is citizenship education featured in the current curriculum reform agenda in terms of both policy contexts and values and 2 to what extent do the reforms in citizenship education reflect current debates within the society From comparative analysis of these 11 case studies the editors have found a complex picture of curriculum reform that indicates deep tensions between global and local agendas On one hand there is substantial evidence of an increasingly common policy rhetoric in the debates about citizenship education On the other it is evident that this discourse does not necessarily extend to citizenship curriculum which in most places continues to be constructed according to distinctive social political and cultural contexts Whether the focus is on Islamic values in Pakistan an emerging discourse about Chinese democracy a nostalgic conservatism in Australia or a continuing nation building project in Malaysia the cases show that distinctive social values and ideologies construct national citizenship curricula in Asian contexts even in this increasingly globalized era This impressive collection of case studies of a diverse group of societies informs and enriches understanding of the complex relationship between citizenship education and the curriculum both regionally and globally
