The Nun Denis Diderot, 2008-09-11 The seemingly true story of a young girl forced by her parents to enter a convent and take holy orders The Eighteenth-century French Novel Vivienne Mylne, 1970 Convents and Nuns in Eighteenth-Century French Politics and Culture Mita Choudhury, 2018-07-05 Representations of convents and nuns assumed power and urgency within the volatile political culture of eighteenth century France Drawing from a range of literary cultural and legal material Mita Choudhury analyzes how between 1730 and 1789 lawyers religious pamphleteers and men of letters repeatedly asked Who should control the female convent and women religious These sources chronicled the conflicts between nuns and the male clergy among nuns themselves and between nuns and their families conflicts that were presented to the public in the context of potent issues such as despotism citizenship female education and sexuality The cloister operated as a symbol of despotism the equivalent of the Sultan's seraglio or the King's Bastille Before 1770 lawyers and magistrates praised nuns as the personification of virtuous Christian women often victims vulnerable to those who would use them to further their own political ends After 1770 men of letters evaluated nuns according to more secular norms and concluded that the convent had no purpose in society except as a reminder of the problems inherent in the Old Regime Choudhury elaborates on how nuns were not always passive entities mere objects to be shaped by the political needs of others But because they relied on men in order to make their voices heard the place of women religious in the public sphere was a complex one based on negotiations between female action and male subjectivity During the French Revolution whatever support they had enjoyed was lost as republicans and moderates began to see nuns as potentially disruptive to the social order family life and revolutionary values These Catholic Sisters are all Mamas! Joan Burke, 2021-10-01 In Africa religion is very much embedded in the social structure and the organisation of the peoples of that continent That is why we will obtain a clear starting point for the eventual articulation of an African spirituality of religious life by examining closely how religious life is evolving on the ground in the everyday experience of religious women After considering how the political and Church culture fostered the inculturation of Catholic institutions this ethnographic work documents the unfolding African expression of the Sisterhood among women religious in the former Zaire Areas examined are perception of the sister in terms of the people incorporation of newer members understanding of community life local models of social relationships which affects sisters among themselves dynamics of group decision making expression and resolution of social conflict

John Lydgate, The Dance of Death, and its model, the French Danse Macabre , 2021-04-06 This edition of John Lydgate's Dance of Death offers a detailed comparison of the different text versions a new scholarly edition and translation of Guy Marchant's 1485 French Danse Macabre text and an art historical analysis of its woodcut illustrations It addresses the cultural context and historical circumstances of Lydgate's poem and its model the mural of 1424-25 with accompanying French poem in Paris as well as their precursors notably the Vado mori poems and the Legend of the Three Living and the

Three Dead It discusses authorship the personification and visualisation of Death and the wider dissemination of the Dance
The edited texts include commentaries notes and a glossary

Narrative Responses to the Trauma of the French Revolution Katherine Astbury, 2017-07-05 During the French Revolution traditional literary forms such as the sentimental novel and the moral tale dominate literary production At first glance it might seem that these texts are unaffected by the upheavals in France in fact they reveal not only a surprising engagement with politics but also an internalised emotional response to the turbulence of the period In this innovative and wide ranging study Katherine Astbury uses trauma theory as a way of exploring the apparent contradiction between the proliferation of non political literary texts and the events of the Revolution Through the narratives of established bestselling literary figures of the Ancien Regime primarily Marmontel Madame de Genlis and Florian and the early works of first generation Romantics Madame de Stael and Chateaubriand she traces how the Revolution shapes their writing providing an intriguing new angle on cultural production of the 1790s

Katherine Astbury is Senior Lecturer in French Studies at the University of Warwick

Political Writings Simone de Beauvoir, 2012-06-21 Political Writings offers an abundance of newly translated essays by Simone de Beauvoir that demonstrate a heretofore unknown side of her political philosophy The writings in this volume range from Beauvoir's surprising 1952 defense of the misogynistic eighteenth century pornographer the Marquis de Sade to a co written 1974 documentary film transcribed here for the first time which draws on Beauvoir's analysis of how socioeconomic privilege shapes the biological reality of aging The volume traces nearly three decades of Beauvoir's leftist political engagement from exposés of conditions in fascist Spain and Portugal in 1945 and hard hitting attacks on right wing French intellectuals in the 1950s to the 1962 defense of an Algerian freedom fighter Djamilia Boupacha and a 1975 article arguing for what is now called the two state solution in Israel Together these texts prefigure Beauvoir's later feminist activism and provide a new interpretive context for reading her multi volume autobiography while also shedding new light on French intellectual history during the turbulent era of decolonization

Carnivalizing Difference Peter I. Barta, Paul Allen Miller, Charles Platter, David Shepherd, 2013-06-17 It has seemed at times that there is no neutral territory between those who see Bakhtin as the practitioner of a kind of neo Marxist or at least materialist deconstruction and those who look at the same texts and see a defender of traditional liberal humanist values and classical conceptions of order a conservative in the true sense of the term Arising from a conference under the same title held at Texas Tech University Carnivalizing Difference seeks to explore the actual and possible relationships between Bakhtinian theory and cultural practice The introduction explores the changing configurations of our understanding of Bakhtin's work in the context of recent theory and outlines how that understanding can inform and be informed by culture both ancient and modern Eleven articles spanning a wide range of periods and cultural forms then address these issues in detail revealing the ways in which Bakhtinian thought illuminates sometimes obfuscates but always challenges

A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V4 18th C Supplement Richard A. Brooks,

Hindsight and Insight William F. Edmiston, 2010-11 William F Edmiston revises current theories of what narratologists call focalization and applies his revised theory to four eighteenth century French memoir novels Hindsight and Insight contributes to our knowledge of the history and evolution of the novel by demonstrating that France's earliest novelists were already engaged in the kinds of narrative experimentation that are usually associated with modern writers It presents an analysis of the narrative point of view in both its theoretical aspects and its practical applications Edmiston exposes the inadequacies of current concepts of focalization and proposes a revised concept that is applicable to personal narration one that can accommodate all the focal possibilities available to the first person narrator He applies this concept to four French memoir novels Les Egarements du coeur et de l'esprit by Marivaux Manon Lescaut by Prévost and La Religieuse by Diderot Each of these well known novels offers a different case study and raises specific theoretical questions of selective focalization forms of reported speech problems of temporal ambiguity manipulation of the reader narratorial reliability and cognitive privilege Edmiston's study proposes a reading of the novels that resolves certain problems of interpretation raised by other recent studies

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

Modern Woodcuts and Lithographs by British and French Artists Malcolm Charles Salaman, 1919

Jacques Rivette and French New Wave Cinema James R Russo, 2023-03-18 This first comprehensive English collection of the interviews of Jacques Rivette 1928-2016 documents his career through chronology filmography bibliography and image stills A comprehensive introduction places this work in the wider context of twentieth century social change Rivette's films like many of the works of the French New Wave seem to have avoided the aging process entirely remaining as playful fresh and quietly spectacular as the day they were made Indeed his body of work may be the most impressive of the French New Wave Celine and Julie Go Boating 1974 has been recognized as possibly the best film to emerge from the post New Wave era even as Paris Belongs to Us 1961 is one of the best pictures to emerge from the New

Wave itself Rivette was hardly the most prolific director however and the length of his films has often counted against him Nonetheless his clinical self reflexive essays in film form reveal him as a cinematic purist whose commitment to the celluloid muse hardly diminished from the heady days of the early 1950s to the end of his career in 2009 Beyond inspiring the New Wave movement and continuing to reflect and reflect on its central tenets Rivettes enduring contribution to the history of film is unquestionably evident in his sensitive treatment of the histories and destinies of women especially through strong roles for actresses During the six decades of his career nonetheless he struck a subtle balance not only between female and male characters but also between political and personal obsession between myth and fiction between theater and cinema in films that in addition to having influenced such contemporary filmmakers as Claire Denis Jim Jarmusch Olivier Assayas and David Lynch continue to redefine the art of cinema around the world

Eighteenth Century French Novelists and the Novel Lawrence W. Lynch,1979 Examines the theoretical writings of the major French novelists of the eighteenth century

Imagining Sex Sarah Toulalan,2007-09-06 Imagining Sex examines a variety of material from 17th century England to argue that unlike today pornography was not a discrete genre nor was it usually subject to suppression The book explores contemporary thinking on these issues and wider cultural concerns

The Evolution of the French Novel, 1641-1782 English Showalter, Jr,2015-03-08 In France between 1641 and 1782 the romance developed into the novel Ms Showalter s intensive study of the novel particularly during the critical period 1700 1720 shows that an important movement toward nineteenth century realism was taking place To trace this development the author has selected five phenomena time space names money and the narrator and follows their treatment throughout the period to show why romance tended toward the novel To show the working out of these ideas there is a detailed analysis of one novel Robert Challe s Les Illustres Francoises which can be precisely located in the chain of literary influence Its central theme of the individual in conflict with society was well suited to the forms available to the eighteenth century novelist Consequently it appears repeatedly in important novels of the period showing that the evolutionary process worked to some degree even on subject matter Originally published in 1972 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

French News ,1963 The Cultural Origins of the French Revolution Roger Chartier,2015-12-11 Reknowned historian Roger Chartier one of the most brilliant and productive of the younger generation of French writers and scholars now at work refashioning the Annales tradition attempts in this book to analyze the causes of the French revolution not simply by investigating its cultural origins but by pinpointing the conditions that made is possible because conceivable Chartier has set himself two important tasks First while acknowledging the seminal contribution of

Daniel Mornet's Les origines intellectuelles de la Révolution française (1935) synthesizes the half century of scholarship that has created a sociology of culture for Revolutionary France from education reform through widely circulated printed literature to popular expectations of government and society. Chartier goes beyond Mornet's work not by revising that classic text but by raising questions that would not have occurred to its author. Chartier's second contribution is to reexamine the conventional wisdom that there is a necessary link between the profound cultural transformation of the eighteenth century generally characterized as the Enlightenment and the abrupt Revolutionary rupture of 1789. The Cultural Origins of the French Revolution is a major work by one of the leading scholars in the field and is likely to set the intellectual agenda for future work on the subject.
